3. Definitions

For the purposes of this policy:

Fraternization: Any romantic or sexual relationship between employees, regardless of their respective positions within the organization, where a conflict of interest, power imbalance, or potential for favoritism may exist.

Familial Relationship: Relationships between employees who are related by blood (e.g., parent-child, siblings) or marriage (e.g., spouses) are considered familial relationships for the purposes of this policy.

4. Prohibited Relationships

Supervisor-Subordinate Relationships: Romantic or sexual relationships between a supervisor and a subordinate employee are strictly prohibited. This includes relationships between elected officials and their direct employees.

Relationships with Contractors/Vendors: Romantic or sexual relationships between employees and contractors or vendors doing business with the City of Alabaster are prohibited if such relationships could influence business decisions or create the appearance of impropriety.

Familial Relationships: While not prohibited, familial relationships between employees or between employees and contractors should be disclosed to Human Resources to ensure appropriate measures are taken to prevent conflicts of interest or favoritism. Family members may not supervise other family members or work on the same shifts as other family members.

Flirting and Similar Behavior: Flirting, suggestive comments, gestures, or physical contact of a romantic or sexual nature, whether welcome or unwelcome, are not permitted in the workplace. Such behavior can create a hostile work environment and may lead to disciplinary action.

5. Reporting Procedures

Reports will be treated with confidentiality to the extent possible, and retaliation against individuals who report violations in good faith will not be tolerated.
