

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

CITY OF ALABASTER

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Alabaster Little League is committed to encouraging participation, developing character and discipline, promoting teamwork and advocating community pride. Alabaster Little League creates a positive environment in which coaches, parents, fans and players work together to achieve this goal; and

WHEREAS, the game encourages many young people to direct their energy into a healthy, physical competition, while simultaneously instilling values in them that will last for a lifetime; and

WHEREAS, the program began with the intention of bringing communities together and aiding in the development of young people into well-rounded citizens of society; and,

WHEREAS, the Little League's motto is, 'Character, Courage, and Loyalty.' Clearly, this vision has had an enormous impact not just in the U.S., as it has become the world's largest organized youth sports program played in over 80 countries (and all 50 states of the U.S.); and,

WHEREAS, the Little League has always stood for fair play, sportsmanship, and teamwork; so, it's little wonder that it is so popular even today;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Scott Brakefield, Mayor of Alabaster, do hereby proclaim September as

National Little League Month

in Alabaster.

WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Alabaster, Alabama to be affixed, this 3rd day of September 2024.

Mayor Scott Brakefield
