Confidential Information & Conflict of Interest

Confidentiality

It is the policy of the Town of Alpine that employees of the Town of Alpine may not disclose, divulge, or make accessible confidential information belonging to, or obtained through their affiliation with the Town of Alpine to any person, including relatives, friends, and business and professional associates, other than to persons who have a legitimate need for such information and to whom the Town of Alpine has authorized disclosure.

Employees shall use confidential information solely for the purpose of performing services as an employee for the Town of Alpine. This policy is not intended to prevent disclosure where disclosure is required by law.

Employees, volunteers and contractors must exercise good judgment and care at all times to avoid unauthorized or improper disclosures of confidential information. Conversations in public places, such as restaurants, elevators, and public transportation, should be limited to matters that do not pertain to information of a sensitive or confidential nature. In addition, employees should be sensitive to the risk of inadvertent disclosure and should for example, refrain from leaving confidential information on desks or otherwise in plain view and refrain from the use of speaker phones to discuss confidential information if the conversation could be heard by unauthorized persons.

Upon the termination of an employee's, volunteer's or contractor's relationship with the Town of Alpine, he or she shall return, at the request of the Town of Alpine, all documents, papers, and other materials, regardless of medium, which may contain or be derived from confidential information, in his or her possession.

Conflict of Interest

No employee may engage in any activity or enterprise which conflicts with his/her duties as an employee of the Town of Alpine or with the duties, functions, and responsibilities of the department in which he/she is employed.

Anyone with a conflict of interest must provide 72 hours written advance notice of the conflict to the governing body. Failure to disclose a conflict of interest may be grounds for immediate dismissal.

Anti-discrimination & Harassment

Equal Opportunity Policy

The Town of Alpine provides equal opportunity in all of our employment practices to all qualified employees and applicants without regard to race, color, religion, gender, national origin, age, disability, marital status, military status or any other category protected by federal, state and local laws. This policy applies to all aspects of the employment relationship, including recruitment, hiring, compensation, promotion, transfer, disciplinary action, layoff, return from layoff, training, social, and recreational programs. All such employment decisions will be made without unlawful discrimination on any prohibited basis. The Town of Alpine will make reasonable accommodations for disabled employees and prohibits discrimination based on disability in accordance with the Americans with Disability Act of 1990.

It is also the Town of Alpine's policy to comply with all applicable laws prohibiting discrimination in employment. This includes Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, the Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972, the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, the American with Disabilities Act of 1990, and any other applicable federal, state, and local statutory provisions.

Policy Prohibiting Harassment and Discrimination

The Town of Alpine strives to maintain an environment free from discrimination and harassment, where employees treat each other with respect, dignity and courtesy. This policy applies to all phases of employment.

Prohibited Behavior

The Town of Alpine does not and will not tolerate any type of harassment of our employees or applicants for employment. Discriminatory conduct or conduct characterized as harassment as defined below is prohibited.

The term harassment includes, but is not limited to epithets, derogatory comments, slurs, jokes, and other verbal or physical conduct relating to a person's gender, ethnicity, race, color, creed, religion, sexual orientation, nation origin, age, disability, marital status, military service status or any other protected classification that unreasonably interferes with a person's work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile work environment.

Sexually harassing behavior in particular includes unwelcome conduct such as: sexual advances, request for sexual favors, offensive touching, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Such conduct may constitute sexual harassment when it:

- is made an explicit or implicit condition of employment
- is used as the basis for employment decisions
- unreasonably interferes with an individual's work performance, or

- creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment

The types of conduct covered by this policy include demands or subtle pressure for sexual favors accompanied by promise of favorable job treatment or a threat concerning employment.

Specifically, prohibited behavior includes sexual behavior such as:

- repeated sexual flirtations, advances or propositions
- continued and repeated verbal abuse of a sexual nature, sexually related comments and joking, graphic or degrading comments about an employee's appearance or displaying sexually suggestive objectives or pictures including cartoons and vulgar email messages
- any uninvited physical contact or touching, such as patting, pinching or repeated brushing against another's body

Harassment by Non-employees

The Town of Alpine will also endeavor to protect employees, to the extent possible, from reported harassment by non-employees in the workplace.

Complaint procedure and Investigation:

An employee may select the procedure under which the harassment complaint will be filed. The varieties of ways which allow an employee to file such a complaint are due to the sensitivities associated with the conduct described as sexual harassment.

Employees who wish to report a possible incident of sexual harassment or other unlawful harassment or discrimination should first notify the harasser if possible. If that person is not available, or you believe it would be inappropriate to contact the person, contact the mayor immediately or an elected official.

The Town of Alpine will conduct a prompt investigation with as much confidentiality as possible under the circumstances. Employees who raise concerns and make reports in good faith can do so without fear of reprisal; at the same time, employees have an obligation to cooperate with the Town of Alpine in enforcing the policy and investigating and remedying complaints.

Any employee who becomes aware of possible sexual harassment or other illegal discrimination against others should promptly advise the mayor.

Any employee that files a false complaint will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Anyone found to have been engaging in such wrongful behavior will be subject to appropriate discipline, up to and including termination.

Prohibition against Retaliation

Any employee who files a complaint of sexual harassment or other discrimination in good faith will not be adversely affected in terms and conditions of employment and will not be retaliated against or discharged because of the complaint. In addition, we will not tolerate retaliation against any employee who, in good faith, cooperates in the investigation of the complaint. Anyone who engages in such retaliatory behavior will be subject to appropriate discipline, up to and including termination.

Temporary, full time. Employees who are hired as interim replacements to temporarily supplement the workforce or to assist in the completion of a specific project and who are temporarily scheduled to work the company's full-time schedule for a limited duration. Workweek and Hours of Work

The standard workweek is from Sunday 12:00 a.m. until Saturday 11:59 p.m. and generally consists of 40 work hours. Office hours are Monday – Thursday 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Friday 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., with a 30-minute lunch break. Individual work schedules may vary depending on the needs of each department.

Meal and Rest Breaks

At the end of each week, you and your supervisor must sign the time sheet attesting to its correctness before forwarding it to the Mayor's Office for approval.

Overtime

When required due to the needs of the business, you may be asked to work overtime. Overtime is hours worked in excess of 40 in a single workweek. Nonexempt employees will be paid overtime compensation at the rate of one and one-half their regular rate of pay for all hours over 40 worked in a single workweek. Deductions from Pay/Safe Harbor Exempt Employees

The Town of Alpine does not make improper deductions from the salaries of exempt employees and complies with the salary basis requirements of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA). Employees classified as exempt from the overtime pay requirements of the FLSA will be notified of this classification at the time of hire or change in position.

Permitted deductions. The FLSA limits the types of deductions that may be made from the pay of an exempt employee. Deductions that are permitted include:

- Deductions that are required by law, e.g., income taxes;
- Deductions for employee benefits when authorized by the employee;
- Absence from work for 1 or more full days for personal reasons other than sickness or disability;

- Any full workweek in which the employee does not perform any work.

During the week an exempt employee begins work for the company or during the last week of employment, the employee will only be paid for actual hours worked. In addition, an employee may be paid only for hours worked during a period when the employee is using unpaid leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA).

Improper deductions. If an employee classified as exempt believes that an improper deduction has been taken from the employee's pay, the employee should immediately report the deduction to the Treasurer's Office. The report will be promptly investigated, and if it is found that an improper deduction has been made, the company will reimburse the employee for the improper deduction.

Inspections by employees must be requested in writing to the HR department and will be scheduled at a mutually convenient time or as required under state law. Personnel files are to be reviewed in the HR department. Representatives of government or law enforcement agencies, in the course of their duties, may be allowed access to file information.

A "domestic partnership" is generally defined as a committed relationship between two individuals who are sharing a home or living arrangements.

Current employees who marry each other or become involved in a domestic partnership will be permitted to continue employment with the company provided they don't work in a direct supervisory relationship with each other or otherwise pose difficulties as mentioned above. If employees who marry or live together do work in a direct supervisory relationship with each other, the company will attempt to reassign one of the employees to another position for which the employee is qualified if such a position is available. If no such position is available, the employees will be permitted to determine which one of them will resign from the company.

Voluntary Separation from Employment

The 10 days must be actual working days. Holidays and PTO will not be counted toward the 10-day notice. Employees who provide the requested amount of notice will be considered to have resigned in good standing and generally will be eligible for rehire.

In most cases, the Town Council Personnel Liaison - Personnel Director will conduct an exit meeting on or before the last day of employment to collect all company property and to discuss final pay, which will include payment of accrued vacation not to exceed 160 hours. If applicable, information regarding benefits continuation through the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA) will be sent to the employee's home address.
