Total Disability Partial Disability	After the elimination period has been satisfied, pays the total disability weekly benefit while the insured person is totally disabled due to an injury or sickness which occurs while not actively at work resulting in the insured person being unable to perform the important duties of their own occupation, not working at another job and requiring a physician's care appropriate for the condition. Benefits continue while the insured person is totally disabled, or to the end of the benefit period, whichever is first. Benefits are payable for only one of two or more concurrent disabilities. Pays 50% of the total disability weekly benefit while the insured person is partially disabled and has returned to work part-time immediately following a period of paid total disability, but still unable to perform all work duties resulting in a loss of income of at least 20%. Partial disability benefits will continue until the insured person is no longer partially disabled or to the end of the maximum benefit period, whichever is first, but in no case longer than:
	• 13 weeks if the maximum benefit period is 13 or 26 weeks; or
	• 26 weeks if the maximum benefit period is 52 or 104 weeks.

Childbirth	For childbirth, the insured person will be considered totally disabled for a period of six weeks for non-Caesarean delivery or eight weeks for Caesarean delivery. The number of weekly benefits payable will be reduced by the elimination period. For example, if the elimination period for sickness is 14 days, the benefit is payable for four weeks for non-Caesarean delivery and six weeks for Caesarean delivery.
