

Office of the MAYOR
City of Angleton, Texas
Proclamation

WHEREAS, Animal Control Officers deserve recognition for the dedicated services they provide to protect the health and welfare of the public and of all animals; and

WHEREAS, they selflessly enter potentially dangerous situations daily to serve and protect citizens, domestic animals, livestock and wildlife in our community and across the nation; and

WHEREAS, some important duties of Animal Control Officers include enforcing animal control laws, protecting the public from diseases, such as rabies, capturing roaming and potentially dangerous animals, investigating reports of animal complaints and welfare, seizing animals from harmful conditions, and rehoming, rehabilitating, relocating and releasing animals to a safe environment; and

WHEREAS, the City of Angleton urges all citizen of our community to join us in expressing our sincere appreciation for the service and dedication of Animal Control Officers in our community, state, and nation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John Wright, Mayor of the City of Angleton, Texas, along with the City of Angleton City Council, do hereby proclaim that April 12-18, 2026 is recognized as:

“National Animal Control Officer Appreciation Week”

PROCLAIMED this 24th day of March, 2026.

CITY OF ANGLETON, TEXAS

John Wright
Mayor