EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

The Houston-Galveston Area Council is the region-wide voluntary association of local governments in the 13-county Gulf Coast planning region of Texas. Its service area is 12,500 square miles and contains more than 7 million people. Angleton must annually designate representatives to H-GAC. Historically it has been the Mayor and Mayor Pro-Tem. The General Assembly consists of delegates from all member governmental entities of the Houston-Galveston Area Council. Each member city with a population of less than 99,999 shall select 1 member of its governing body as its representative and 1 member of the governing body as an alternate.

H-GAC requires Council to designate a person by name so that they know who will be voting on the General Law Cities Representatives and to whom they should send the Officer's Ballot.

RECOMMENDATION:

Staff recommends Council approval of a representative and an alternate.
