North Carolina General Statute 20-187.2(a) allows the governing body of a municipality to, upon request, declare as surplus the badge and side arm of a retiring police officer. The statute states that the badge is to be awarded at "no cost" to the retiring member and that the side arm be awarded "at a price determined by such governing body".

Apex Police Sergeant Matthew Kutcher is scheduled to retire from the Apex Police Department effective April 1, 2026, and has made a request to be awarded his badge and service handgun.

Sergeant Matthew Kutcher began his career at the Apex Police Department on January 26, 2004.

Previously he served with the Jefferson County Sheriff's Department in West Virginia and Shepherdstown Police Department in West Virginia from 1997 until 2000. In addition, he served with the North Carolina State University Police Department from 2000 until 2004.

In recognition of his thirty (30) years of service in law enforcement, Chief Johansen requests that one "Police Officer" badge and one handgun (described below) be declared "surplus", that the price for such handgun be set at $1.00 (One Dollar) and that the badge and handgun be awarded to Sergeant Matthew Kutcher upon his retirement.
