For purposes of this EULA, “Authorized Purposes” means strictly the following purposes:

- An internal investigation conducted by the Customer within the Customer’s own organization;
- An investigation of fraud, intrusion or assault incidents, including DFIR conducted by the Customer within the Customer’s own organization;

Regarding any other Cellebrite products or software other than Cellebrite's UFED Physical Analyzer, Customer may not use a Remote Access Protocol unless expressly agreed to in writing by Cellebrite. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §1833(b), Customer shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any Federal or State trade secret law for the disclosure of Cellebrite’s Trade Secrets (as defined below) only if such disclosure is made: (i) in confidence to a Federal, State, or local government official, solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (ii) in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal. In court proceedings claiming retaliation by Cellebrite for Customer’s reporting a suspected violation of law, Customer may only disclose Cellebrite Trade Secrets to Customer’s legal counsel and may only use the Trade Secret information, if Customer (i) files documents containing Trade Secrets under seal; and (ii) Customer does not otherwise disclose Cellebrite Trade Secrets, except pursuant to a court order.

The receiving party shall have no obligation regarding Confidential Information that: (a) was previously known to it free of any confidentiality obligation, (b) was independently developed by it, (c) is or becomes publicly available other than by unauthorized disclosure, (d) is disclosed to third parties by the disclosing party without restriction, or (e) is received from a third party without violation of any confidentiality obligation.

If a party is faced with legal action or a requirement under applicable Law to disclose or make available Confidential Information received hereunder, such party shall promptly notify the disclosing party and, upon request of the latter, cooperate in contesting such action or requirement at the disclosing party's expense. Neither party shall be liable for damages for any disclosure or unauthorized access pursuant to legal action or applicable Law or for inadvertent disclosure, access, or use if the customary degree of care as it uses with respect to its own proprietary information has been exercised and if, upon discovery of such inadvertent disclosure, access, or use the receiving party has endeavored to prevent any further (inadvertent or otherwise) disclosure or use.
