Item Details

As a follow up to the Human Trafficking training Mayor Olive took that was facilitated by the City of Houston Mayor's Office there is a reconvening of the group on December 11th and 12th. Per the City of Houston "Air, hotel and most meals will be covered again by a generous grant from the Jones Day Foundation. You will be responsible for ground transportation, bag fees and meals not provided during the program. The reconvening will focus on providing a replication effort summary, updates from participants and addressing barriers or challenges through focused group work". Last year's total expense was $345.26. Mayor Olive will provide a written report to Council about this follow up session upon his return.
