  - c. No use interpretation shall allow a use in a zone unless evidence is presented demonstrating the use will conform to development standards established for the zone;
  - d. No use interpretation shall allow a use in a particular zone unless the use is substantially similar to a use allowed in the zone;
  - e. If a proposed use is most similar to a conditional use authorized in the zone in which it is proposed to be located, any interpretation allowing such use shall require that the use be approved only as a conditional use pursuant to section 10-7-9 of this chapter; and
  - f. No use interpretation shall permit the establishment of any use that would be inconsistent with the statement of purpose of the zone in which it would be located.

- 2. A use interpretation finding a particular use to be a permitted or conditional use shall not authorize the establishment of such use nor the development, construction, reconstruction, alteration, or moving of any building or structure, but shall merely authorize the preparation, filing, and processing of applications for any approvals or permits that may be required by this title or other applicable provisions of this Code.

2. The board shall review an administrative decision for correctness and shall give no deference to the reasonableness of the decision being appealed.
3. The person making an appeal shall have the burden of proving that an error has been made.

SECTION 18:        ADOPTION “10.07.21 Review Of Constitutional Taking Issues” of the Apple Valley Land Use is hereby added as follows:

BEFORE ADOPTION

10.07.21 Review Of Constitutional Taking Issues (Non-existent)

AFTER ADOPTION

10.07.21 Review Of Constitutional Taking Issues(Added)

A.        Purpose. The purpose of this section is to provide advisory guidelines for the Town to assist the Town in identifying actions that may involve physical taking or exaction of private real property and may have constitutional taking issues.

B.        Definitions. As used herein:

1.        "Constitutional taking issues" means actions involving the physical or regulatory taking of private real property by the Town that might require compensation to a private real property owner under:

a.        The Fifth or Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States;

b.        Article I, Section 22 of the Utah Constitution; or

c.        Any recent court rulings governing the physical or regulatory taking of private real property by a governmental entity.

C.        Guidelines. The following guidelines shall be considered by the Town when taking any action that may result in the physical or regulatory taking of private real property. The Town should review the guidelines to determine and identify whether a proposed governmental action raises constitutional taking issues.

1.        Does the action result in a permanent physical occupation of private property?

2.        Does the action require a property owner to dedicate property or grant an easement to the Town?

3.        Does the action deprive the property owner of all economically viable uses of the property?

4.        Does the action have a severe impact on the property owner's economic interest?

5. Does the action deny a fundamental attribute of ownership?

D. Analysis. If the Town determines that a governmental action involves constitutional taking issues, the proposed action should be reviewed by the Town to analyze the possible taking and to determine action to be taken. In reviewing proposed action, the following factors shall be considered:

1. The effect the potential taking would have on the use or value of the private property;

2. The likelihood that the action may result in a constitutional taking;

3. Any alternatives to the proposed action that would fulfill the Town's lawful objectives and reduce the risk of a constitutional taking;

4. The cost to the Town for payment of compensation if a taking is determined;

5. The governmental interest involved and its nexus to the potential taking; and

6. If the action is roughly proportional or reasonably related to the impact of any proposed development.

E. Appeal. Any owner of private property whose interest in the property is subject to an alleged physical or regulatory taking by the Town, pursuant to a final and authoritative decision or action of the Town, may appeal the Town's decision or action by filing a written notice of appeal and statement of the grounds for the appeal in the Town Recorder's office within 30 days from the date of the Town's decision or action. The Town Council or its designee shall hear all evidence regarding the appeal and render a decision and findings in writing within 14 days from the date the appeal was filed.

F. Limitations. The guidelines set forth herein shall be advisory only and shall not be construed to expand or limit the scope of the Town's liability for a constitutional taking. The Town shall have no legal liability to any person, firm, or entity of any nature whatsoever and a court may not impose liability upon the Town for failure to comply with the provisions of this section.

SECTION 19: ADOPTION "10.07.22 Procedural Irregularities" of the Apple Valley Land Use is hereby added as follows:

A.     Validity of action. Notwithstanding any provision of this title which sets forth a procedure for any matter herein, no action, inaction or recommendation regarding the matter which is the subject of the procedure shall be void or invalid or set aside by a court due to any error (including, but not limited to, any irregularity, informality, neglect or omission) which pertains to a petition, application, notice, finding, record, hearing, report, recommendation or any other procedural matter whatsoever unless:

1.     The procedure is required by state or federal law; and
2.     In an examination of the entire circumstances, including the evidence of record, the court is of the opinion that the procedural error complained of was prejudicial to a substantial right of the complainant as shown by the following:
  - a.     Had the error not occurred the decision made pursuant to the procedure would have been different, and
  - b.     Because of the error the complainant suffered an injury for which relief must be given.

B.     Assumption of validity. The court shall presume that action taken pursuant to a procedure was done in good faith and shall not presume that an error is prejudicial or that an injury occurred. The complainant shall have the burden of the proof by a preponderance of the evidence to show that an error is prejudicial or that an injury occurred.

C.     Applicability. All procedures within this title shall be subject to this section.
