Description

Run The Mesa is a 5K and 10K run focused on bringing the beauty of southern Utah's backroads to local athletes and runners from all over the country. The course will start and finish at the events venue based at Ruby Rider Ranch which is directly adjacent to the course on Smithsonian butte scenic byway and heads North towards Grafton then back to the finish at the venue. Our main objective in using this location for the events is the absolutely beautiful vistas that participants would be immersed in while running with peers.

Trash Control and Removal

As outdoor enthusiasts we want no distractions from the natural beauty for our participants. Red Dog Events will do an extensive initial cleaning of all litter on the course and at the venue prior to the event. During the event there will be adequate receptacles provided throughout the course, at the turnarounds, and at the venue for spectators. After the event our staff will be conducting a thorough cleaning of the course and venue to ensure that we left no trace behind.

Potable Water

We contract our potable water through Real Water. For the amount of expected participants we will order a total of 250 gallons of purified drinking water for both runners and spectators. There will be adequate supply along the route and at the venue to support the amount of people showing up to ensure healthy hydration for everyone there.

Emergency Services

For the safety of our runners and everyone involved we will have either Municipal or Goldcross Ambulance service available for any medical emergency we might encounter for our runners and spectators. Safety and health are our top priority in providing a safe and fun event for all the are involved.
