

City Commission Agenda Item

Meeting Date: January 18th, 2023
From: Eric Burr, Chief of Police
Item: Introduction of Police Department Emotional Support Dog

Purpose: Introduce the Police Department's Emotional Support Dog

Background:

The police department has acquired an emotional support dog to assist officers with critical incident debriefing. The dog will also be a tool used by the Crisis Intervention Officer during her mental health follow up work with the co-responder from Four County Mental Health. The dog will be a resource for the entire community as well as department members. Sal is an English Bulldog and will attend training in February 2023.
