2025 Certified Municipal Clerk and Finance Officer Association (CCMFOA)
Third Annual Rookie of the Year Winner Announced

The Certified Municipal Clerk and Finance Officer Association (CCMFOA) is pleased to announce Tiffany Parsons, City Clerk, for the City of Arkansas City, Kansas, as the winner of its third annual Rookie of the Year award.

The Rookie of the Year award recognizes new municipal clerks and finance officers who have demonstrated outstanding performance and dedication to their communities. This year's winner, Tiffany Parsons, has been a dedicated member of the City of Arkansas City team since 2022 and has quickly made a positive impact on her community. Tiffany was promoted to City Clerk in 2023.

"We are excited to recognize Tiffany Parsons as our third annual Rookie of the Year," said CCMFOA President, Alicia Hidalgo. "Tiffany has consistently exhibited exceptional dedication in her role as City Clerk and has firmly established herself as an emerging leader within our profession."

Since her appointment as City Clerk in 2023, Tiffany has demonstrated outstanding leadership, professionalism, and dedication, making a notable impact on her community in a brief period. Furthermore, she has shown a strong dedication to professional development and is actively working towards earning her Certified Municipal Clerk designation.

The CCMFOA Rookie of the Year award was established to recognize the contributions of new municipal clerks and finance officers who have demonstrated exceptional dedication to their communities. The award is open to municipal clerks and finance officers who have been in their roles for less than five years.
