Good afternoon Ms. Sims,

We need to make a change to the Honorary Road Naming Request for Wrightsboro Rd. John Ussery, Assistant Director – Traffic Engineering, is requesting we adjust the limits of the Mayor’s Honorary Name request to only encompass the stretch of Wrightsboro Road between 12th Street and Augusta Avenue. Per Mr. Ussery, “there is currently a sculpture project underway to install a piece in the Twiggs Roundabout that honor the Black History of this area. We would not want this request to confuse the messaging of the sculpture. Second, there are several proposals regarding the intersection of RA Dent and Wrightsboro Road. This intersection has significant line-of-site and safety issues, and sometime in the near future we anticipate a project to address those issues. Placing an honorary sign there not may not be in line with proposed future improvements.”

Please let me know if we may proceed with processing the request with the above-mentioned changes. Contact us if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Good Morning Ms. Chanti,

The following should fulfil the impact requirement:

The late Bishop C. M. Bailey and the City of Augusta have been synonymous for much of his 56-year tenure in the ministry. His first pastoral assignment, as then-Elder Bailey, was at East Boundary mission here in Augusta. Then, as then-Apostle Bailey, he mastered local ministry throughout a nearly two-decade tenure as pastor of the Augusta Motherhouse congregation, located at 1269 Wrightsboro Road.

As the pastor of the Augusta Motherhouse, the then-Apostle Bailey had supervisory responsibility over all 17 United House of Prayer congregations in the State of Georgia as well as seven in Florida, one in Alabama, one in Mississippi, one in Tennessee, one in Arkansas, and one in Louisiana. During this time, then-Apostle Bailey was also the head judge of the Church's highest ecclesiastical body and the General Council. The then-Apostle C. M. Bailey—while maintaining his pastoral duties—also shepherded The United House of Prayer through the transition after the death of the late-Bishop Dr. S. C. Madison. When the Church's General Assembly met, in 2008, then-Senior Minister Bailey ascended the Bishopric of the Church.

Bishop Bailey's philanthropic efforts have no match. His example, alone, is worth emulating. He led the McCollough Scholarship College Fund and the former First Lady Madison Scholastic Program, both inspiring academic achievement; and he was the largest contributor to both. A champion for voting, he was also the executive director of the Organization's national McCollough Voters League; and maintained the McCollough Townhouses in Augusta; but then to add his signature and style to the city, the Bailey Place Augusta a complex of homes and apartments in the Bethlehem neighborhood.

Thanks-Jasmine

Full naming criteria can be found on this page: <https://www.augustaga.gov/1954/Honorary-Road-Naming>. There are three major components:

1. Type of impact the honoree may have or had on the community. The honoree should have met or currently meets at least one of the following:
 1. Cultural impact
 2. Historical impact

3. Humanitarian efforts
4. Significant lineage
5. Distinguished career
2. Geographical area. The designation shall be confined to the road within the vicinity of the home, business, or location associated with the honoree chosen. If the road already carries an honorary name, which differs from a historical name, no additional honorary name shall be assigned.
3. Life of the honoree. If an individual and he/she is still living, the request can only be initiated by an Augusta, GA Commissioner. Naming roads after individuals is only permitted for honorary purposes unless the person holds a state/national significance.
