

Good Afternoon,

To Mayor Johnson, Commissioners, and Pastor Christopher C. Armstrong, of Mount Calvary Baptist Church, I am Tahlia Williams, Senior Girl Scout of Troop 20724. Our troop was re-established in March 2015. Our troop advisors are Luvenia Bates, Victoria Boyd, Linda Durham, Carla Farris, and Nateefa Lee. As a troop we continue to work to carry out the mission of the Girl Scout Promise and Law. Girl Scouts are known for the annual cookie sale, but we do so much more than sell cookies. As a troop we earn badges, which teach life skills. Some of the badges we have earned are: money management, cookie business, meals, girl scout way, and my promise my faith. Last month we earned our CPR/First Aid certificate. We engage in community service by decorating and filling shoe boxes with toiletry items for the homeless, serving at A China Christmas Banquet, attending and serving in worship service at our meeting place Mount Calvary Baptist Church. We have taken education trips to places such as: The Juliette Gordon Low House in Savannah, African American Museum in Charleston, and visiting Jay Jefferies at Fox 54 Studios. We have also invited guests to our meetings to fellowship and talk to us like: Commissioner Francine Scott, District Attorney Jared Williams, Minister Adrienne Armstrong, and the Women's Dance Ministry at Mount Calvary. We want to thank you for allowing us to earn our government badge by attending this Commissioner meeting.
