Caption/Topic of Discussion to be placed on the Agenda:

The destruction of the home values and subdivision barrier of The Hamptons. The Hamptons Homeowners Association previously appeared before the Augusta Commission after the Augusta Housing Authority purchased the remaining lots of the The Hamptons from the developer unbeknownst to the residents. The "mixed use development" was blocked. Now the Augusta Housing Authority has initiated a project with no notice to the residents and said project will impact the safety and security of residents, destroy home values and leave homeowners with no input. The community wants this project rescinded because of improper notice and no due process. Please send this request form to the following address:
