

Short-Term Rental
Draft Regulation Language
Date: March 4, 2026

Purpose

The purpose of this article is to outline regulations and requirements related to the use of residential properties as short-term rentals to ensure the health, safety and welfare of those occupying short-term rentals; and to promote the protection of the neighborhood character and quality of life for surrounding properties.

Presumption of Ownership

For the enforcement of the provisions here, there shall be a prima facie presumption that the owner of the premises shall be that person, persons, or entity as reflected on the most recent evidence of ownership for the real property on file with the Sedgwick County, Kansas Register of Deeds.

Short-Term Rental Administrative Permit Required

- A. No Person shall allow any Dwelling or Dwelling Unit to be rented or occupied by another for a period of 28 consecutive days or less without the owner first obtaining a Short-Term Rental Administrative Permit under the terms of this Article.
- B. Short Term Rental in the City means the use of a residential Dwelling Unit to provide for temporary lodging or lodging and meals for Transient Guests on a paying basis. The residential Dwelling Unit may be owner or manager occupied. The term Short Term Rental in the City also includes Bed and Breakfast Inn.
- C. Occasional Rental Exemption: A residential dwelling unit may be used for transient occupancy (short-term rental) for a cumulative total of no more than fourteen (14) days in a calendar year without obtaining a short-term rental permit as long as the operator maintains a log of rental days.
- D. One (1) Short-Term Rental Permit shall be issued for each parcel of property with a Dwelling or Dwelling Unit(s) for rent and shall be deemed to cover all such Dwelling Units for rent on the property under single or common ownership.
- E. The number of Dwelling Units per parcel of property permitted to be rented as Short-Term Rentals shall be limited to single-family and two-family residence districts.

- F. No more than two (2) Short-Term Rental permits can be held by the same Owner at any given time in the City. In the event an Owner actively uses more than two (2) parcels of property as Short-Term Rentals at the time of this Ordinance's passage, that Owner may apply for Short-Term Rental Permit for the additional parcels of property until the earlier of:
1. the Owner no longer owning the additional parcels of property;
  2. the Owner no longer actively offering the additional parcels of property as Short-Term Rentals; or
  3. the Owner allowing the Short-Term Rental Permit to expire without timely renewal.
  4. For purposes of this subsection only, each member, partner, shareholder, or director of an Owner entity shall be considered an "Owner."
- G. A Short-Term Rental Permit shall not be considered in place of or as a waiver of the requirement to obtain a General Business License for Dwelling or Dwelling Unit(s) rented and be subject to review procedures as set out in this Article and/or in the City of Bel Aire Code.
- H. The City shall have authority to exercise its permitting powers under this Article including the power to issue, renew, deny, revoke and suspend a Short-Term Rental Permit with respect to the entire premises or only a specific Dwelling Unit(s) found to be in violation of this Code.
- I. Density Restrictions
- The purpose of this section is to preserve neighborhood character, maintain housing availability for long-term residents, and ensure that short-term rental activities do not adversely impact the quality of life within residential areas.
1. To prevent excessive clustering, no short-term rental property may be located within 250 feet of another permitted short-term rental, as measured in a straight line from property line to property line
  2. Existing, legally permitted short-term rentals that exceed the density cap may continue to operate until the property changes ownership or the permit lapses, after which the cap shall apply.
- J. If property has a principal dwelling unit and an accessory or secondary dwelling unit, only one unit may be permitted as a Short-Term rental.

- K. The dwelling unit and site shall remain residential in appearance and characteristics. Internal or external changes that will make the dwelling unit and site appear less residential in character of function are prohibited. Examples of such prohibited alterations include but are not limited to; construction of parking lots, paving of required setbacks, or the addition of commercial-like exterior lighting.
- L. Nothing in this administrative permit shall limit the ability of a property owner, homeowners association or similar association from prohibiting or further limiting the Short-Term rental of property where the authority to do so exists.
- M. It shall be unlawful for any person to operate and or advertise any Short-Term rental without a valid Short-Term rental administrative permit, as approved pursuant to the application procedure herein. Each Short-Term rental location shall require a separate permit. Evidence of operation may include advertising, on-line calendar showing availability, guest testimony, on-line reviews, rental agreements or receipts.

Application for Short-Term Rental Permit

- A. The Owner of a Dwelling or Dwelling Unit to be offered for Short-Term Rental shall first make written application to the City for a Short-Term Rental Permit to carry out the business of renting such Dwelling or Dwelling Unit as a Short-Term Rental. Such application shall be made on a form furnished by the City for such purpose. Such application shall be signed by the Owner, or an individual authorized to sign on behalf of the Owner. Such application shall set forth the following information:
  - 1. Owner's name, address, telephone number, and email address. A post office box is not acceptable as a mailing address for any such person.
  - 2. If the Owner is a partnership, the name of the partnership and the name, residence address, telephone number, and email address of the managing partner. A post office box is not acceptable as a mailing address for any such person.
  - 3. If the Owner is a corporation, the name and address of the corporation and the name, residence address, telephone number, and email address of the chief operating officer. A post office box is not acceptable as a mailing address for any such person.
  - 4. If the Owner is a limited liability company, the name and address of the limited liability company and the name, residence address, telephone number, and email address of the manager or president. A post office box is not acceptable as a mailing address for any such person.

5. If the Owner does not have a local address within thirty (3) miles of the City limits of the City of Bel Aire, then he or she must appoint a person or management company, located within the City limits of the City of Bel Aire to serve as his or her management agent by providing their name, address, telephone number, and email address. A post office box is not acceptable as a mailing address for a Management Agent.
6. If the Owner appoints a Management Agent, the application must be accompanied by the Owner's written, notarized authorization granting the Management Agent express, actual authority to sign documents, to receive service, and to act on the behalf of the Owner.
7. The Owner or Management Agent must:
  - a. Be available twenty-four (24) hours per day, seven (7) days a week to respond to complaints regarding the operation or occupancy of the Short-Term Rental;
  - b. Be available to come to the premises, if required, within thirty (30) minutes to resolve any complaint;
8. The Owner is required to notify the City of Bel Aire Community Development Director or their designee, within fifteen (15) days of a change of the designation of an agent.
9. Address identifying location of the Dwelling or Dwelling Unit(s) to be offered for Short-Term Rental.
10. Total number of bedrooms per unit.
11. Maintain liability insurance coverage for each Short-Term Rental Unit in the minimum amount of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000) per Short-Term Rental Unit to insure against damages to guest(s) caused by the Owner or Responsible Party, and to insure against damages caused by Short-Term Rental guest(s) or the Owner when such damages are incurred by other persons including, but not limited to, neighbors or invited guests. Liability insurance provided by a third party, such as an online booking platform, is acceptable proof of the required liability insurance;
12. Neighbor Notification:
  - a. The application shall be accompanied by a certified list, prepared by an abstract company, of all owners of real property within 200 feet of the area proposed as a Short-Term rental property. If the proposed Short-Term rental property is located adjacent to the city's limits, the area of notification shall be extended to at least 1,000 feet in the unincorporated area. This area shall be referred to as the notification area.
  - b. The City will provide notice of the Short-Term Rental Permit Application being filed by certified mail.
  - c. Notice will allow them the right to file a written protest of the application within 14 days.

- d. If 50% or more of the owners file a written protest, the permit shall not be granted. The applicant can request that the permit be considered as a conditional use permit, requiring Planning Commission to review and City council to approve.
  - e. At least 20 days' notice of the time and place of the public hearing shall be sent, via certified mail, to all property owners in the notification area.
  - f. At least 20 days' notice of the time and place of the public hearing shall be published in the official paper of the City of Bel Aire.
  - g. All notices shall include a statement that a complete legal description is available for public inspection and shall indicate where such information is available. When the notice has been properly addressed and deposited in the mail, failure of a party to receive such notice shall not invalidate any subsequent action taken by the Planning Commission or the Governing Body.
- B. In addition to the application, the Owner and/or Management Agent of the Dwelling or Dwelling Unit(s) to be offered for Short-Term Rental shall also complete and sign a Short-Term Rental Safety Checklist.
- C. At time of issuance of the Short-Term Rental Permit by the City, the City shall also provide the Short-Term Rental Good Neighbor Guidelines, which will be posted in a conspicuous location within the Dwelling or Dwelling Unit(s) to be rented. The City may update the Short-Term Rental Good Neighbor Guidelines from time to time, and any updated Short-Term Rental Good Neighbor Guidelines must be posted in a conspicuous location within the Dwelling or Dwelling Unit(s) to be rented no later than thirty (30) days after the City issues the updated Short-Term Rental Good Neighbor Guidelines. The Guidelines shall inform the transient guests of the following:
- D. Requirement that transient guests of any Short-Term Rental Units are required to comply with all relevant City ordinances and State Statutes:
- 1. That the Short-Term rental shall be utilized in accordance with Rules of Conduct to ensure guests are good neighbors and to minimize disturbances to area residences.
  - 2. The Rules of Conduct shall be prominently posted in the Short-Term rental and shall include, at a minimum, the following:
    - a. The permit number of the Short-Term rental;
    - b. Maximum number of overnight guests;
    - c. Maximum Gathering occupancy;

- d. Parking requirements;
  - e. Trash disposal requirements;
  - f. Quiet hours and noise restrictions;
  - g. Trespass warnings; and
  - h. Pet restrictions.
- E. A Short-Term rental permit shall only be issued to the owner(s) of the property.
- F. The Short-Term Rental permit is valid only for the Owner that submitted the application and cannot be transferred to another Person or run with the property.
- G. Upon issuance of the Short-Term Rental Permit by the City, the Owner will place a copy of the Short-Term Rental Permit in a conspicuous location within the Dwelling or Dwelling Unit(s) to be rented.
- H. For Owners applying for an Owner Occupied Short-Term Rental license, two documents giving proof of Owner occupation must be provided. Each document must be current and show the Owner's name and address matching that of the property to be utilized for a Short-Term Rental.
- I. A scaled floor plan showing the layout and square footage of the Short-Term Rental Unit(s). Such floor plan, at a minimum, shall include a designation and location of bedrooms, bathrooms, and kitchens, and the means of ingress and egress within each room and the dwelling unit.
- J. A statement as to whether the applicant has ever had any License denied, revoked, or suspended by the City or the State of Kansas or any other governmental entity, the reason therefore and the business activity or occupation of the individual subsequent to such suspension, revocation or denial;
- K. A statement that the Owner, Responsible Party, or any employee thereof will not, in renting a Short-Term Rental Unit, discriminate against any person or persons on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, ancestry, disability, sexual orientation, sexual identity, gender identity or age.

- B. The notice shall be sent to the mailing address of the Owner and/or Responsible Party on file with the City. Such notice shall detail the reason or basis for the denial, suspension or revocation of the Permit. It shall also specify the rights of the Owner and/or Responsible Party to appeal any such denial, suspension, or revocation.
- C. Whenever a notice is required to be sent to or served upon the Owner and/or Responsible Party of a Short-Term Rental Dwelling or Dwelling Unit(s) under this Article, notice shall be deemed sufficient if sent by certified mail to the Owner and/or Owner's Management Agent at the address specified in the last permit application filed. If the Dwelling or Dwelling Unit(s) is not permitted pursuant to this Article, notice is deemed sufficient if sent by certified mail to the person listed for the purposes of paying taxes on the property. Notices so mailed are sufficient whether received or returned.

Appeals Process.

- A. Unless otherwise specified by this Article, any Owner and/or Responsible Party aggrieved by the denial, suspension, or revocation of a Short-Term Rental Permit, or when such application has been approved with conditions or modifications that are unacceptable to the applicant, the applicant may file, within ten (10) business days of the decision of the Zoning Administrator, an application for Conditional Use approval with the Planning Commission pursuant to this Article and the filing fee for the Administrative Permit shall be applied toward the filing fee for the Conditional Use approval.
- B. For the purposes of this section, any person shall have the standing to appeal the action of the Zoning Administrator, as specified in this Article.
- C. When an application for an Administrative Permit has been approved, with or without conditions, and a person with standing to appeal as specified in this Article has filed a written protest petition, the application shall be forwarded to the Planning Commission for Conditional Use approval pursuant to this Article.
- D. When an application for a Short-Term Rental in the City or a Short-Term Rental in the County has been approved, with or without conditions, and a person with standing to appeal as specified in this Article, except for all owners of record of land which Abut and are Contiguous to the application area, file a written protest petition, the application shall be forwarded to the Planning Commission for Conditional Use approval pursuant to this Article.
- E. If more than 50% of all owners of record of land which Abut and are Contiguous to the application area, as specified above, file a written protest petition, the application shall be forwarded to the Planning Commission for Conditional Use approval pursuant to this Article.
- F. Any appeal provided for in this section must be filed within 14 days of the date of the decision.

If the owner requests a variance or exception from any part of this Article a conditional permit will be required.

Enforcement and Penalties.

- A. Except as otherwise provided, the Zoning Administrator has the duty and authority to enforce the provisions of this Article.
- B. The Zoning Administrator shall send a written notice by personal service or by certified mail to the Owner of record, Responsible Party, or Registered Agent, if one is established.
- C. The written notice must include:
  - 1. A statement that a violation of this Chapter has been observed or otherwise determined to exist;
  - 2. A brief description of the nature of the violation;
  - 3. Notice of a 30-day compliance period (or longer if appropriate in the reasonable determination of the Zoning Administrator) within which to come into compliance; and
  - 4. A reference to the penalty provisions of this Article.
- D. Penalty. If the property has not been brought into compliance within the compliance period set forth by the notice prescribed under Subsection C above or any period of extension granted by the Zoning Administrator, any person who shall own, operate, or manage a Short-Term Rental in violation of a Permit granted under this Article, or without a Permit when a Permit is required by this Article, will be subject to enforcement options per city code. Each day that any violation of this Article continues shall constitute a separate offense and shall be punishable here under as a separate violation.
- E. Enforcement systems have a three-strike rule. If a Short-Term rental owner has violated the local code multiple times there can be fines and/or a revocation of the Short-Term Rental permit and/or general business license.
- F. Place holds on the owners of up to two years before they can reapply for their permit and license if previously revoked.
- G. Other:
  - 1. Misdemeanor with a per day fine.
  - 2. Suspend license for a period of time (Example: 30 days).

Violations not exclusive.

The provisions of this Article are in addition to any other violations enumerated within the ordinances of the Code of the City of Bel Aire. This Article in no way limits the penalties, actions or abatement procedures which may be taken by the City for a violation of any ordinance of the City of Bel Aire or Statute of the State of Kansas.

Initial Compliance.

With the exception of zoning approval, each Owner or Responsible Party is required to come into compliance with the terms and conditions of this Article within six (6) months of the effective date of the ordinance. If additional zoning approval is required, such approval must be obtained from the City within six (6) months from the date of approval of this ordinance.

Severability.

If any one or more sections, subsections or other part of this Ordinance shall be declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, it is the intent of the City that the remaining portions of the Ordinance shall remain effective. The City states that it would have enacted such remaining portions irrespective of the fact that one or more sections, subsections, or other part of the Ordinance have been held invalid.
