SPECIFICATIONS FOR LABOR, MATERIALS, TERMS AND CONDITIONS

G.L. Dart General Contracting agrees to furnish all materials & labor necessary for the work specified below unless otherwise noted.

G L Dart will remove existing wood steps at the front of the museum. Remove pavers to a squared off area for reconstruction. Supply and install new stone steps slightly wider than the front entrance door. Tuck point foundation walls on the front and sides of the museum. Tuck-point 2nd area of the steps on the 2nd building. Tuck-point the foundation on the front and two sides of 2nd building.

After new steps are built on the front of the museum supply and install new paver bricks to match as close as possible. If the pavers do not match exactly, we will pick an accent color and square off the area so that it looks like an accent area.

Supply and install and paint iron railings to both sets of steps on the front of the museum and the second building. Core drill and tap the iron railing into the paver bricks or ground with cement.

Labor and Materials: $6,500

Comments/Terms: 50% deposit required to start job. Balance due upon job completion

The terms and specification stated herein and special conditions following herein are hereby accepted. Contractor is hereby authorized to perform prescribed repairs agreed upon in the above stated price. Upon acceptance of this proposal or additional work orders, the signer agrees to pay the amount shown in full. Any amount not paid within the described payment schedule will result in possible legal action. Costs resulting from any legal actions, including attorney fees and court costs will be the responsibility of signer. Interest will be added to any unpaid balances, maximum percent allowable by law.
