PRESENTATIONS (not to exceed 15 minutes):

Presentation by Fredericksburg Regional Alliance, Curry Roberts

- Mr. Curry Roberts, representing the Fredericksburg Regional Alliance, provided an overview of the organization's regional economic development initiatives and its role in supporting business recruitment, site selection assistance, and regional marketing efforts across the Fredericksburg area. Mr. Roberts discussed current industry targets, workforce considerations, and strategies used to attract employers and investment to the region. Directors discussed opportunities for Bowling Green to leverage regional partnerships, improve visibility for available properties, and coordinate marketing efforts with the Alliance and local organizations. Additional discussion included the importance of aligning regional economic development strategies with local tourism promotion, downtown revitalization, and business retention efforts. Directors expressed interest in continuing collaboration with the Fredericksburg Regional Alliance to identify potential development opportunities and increase regional awareness of Bowling Green's assets.

OLD BUSINESS:

1. Tourism & Marketing Rack Card Review, India Adams-Jacobs, Town Manager

- Town Manager India Adams-Jacobs provided updated rack card proofs incorporating feedback from BGVA.
- Directors recommended adding the year “1667” for historical context, incorporating additional images featuring people, and highlighting the USO Building more prominently.
- Staff will incorporate the recommended revisions prior to final production.

2. EDA Bylaws, India Adams-Jacobs, Town Manager

- Chair Manns requested legal interpretation of certain bylaw provisions. The Town Manager clarified the interpretation.
- Director Storke motioned to approve the EDA bylaws, seconded by Director Beale. Following a roll-call vote, the EDA bylaws were approved unanimously.

NEW BUSINESS:

3. 2026 Economic Development Authority Meetings
