

CITY OF BELLE ISLE

Declaring May 2-6, 2016 Teacher Appreciation Week

- WHEREAS, the School Board of Orange County deeply appreciates and values the work and commitment of our instructional staff, and
- WHEREAS, the mission of Orange County Public Schools is to be the top producer of successful students in the nation, and
- WHEREAS, the district's vision is dependent upon classroom achievement and sustained community engagement, and
- WHEREAS, teachers are the single most important factor in the classroom to help their students achieve to the best ability of each, and
- WHEREAS, teaching is a profession that requires continual updating of self-knowledge, the ability and desire to impart that knowledge, creativity, patience, and persistence, and
- WHEREAS, teachers work not only with their subject area, but also with the whole child and what they bring with them to school – positive and challenging, and
- WHEREAS, besides parents, teachers are the single most influential individuals in the lives of our students and their future success, and
- WHEREAS, Partners in Education contribute significant resources to support faculty at schools across Orange County and have come together to contribute more than $2,000,000 in prizes to the Superintendent's celebration of teachers, and
- WHEREAS, the success of students and public education is the basis of a free and strong society, and
- WHEREAS, Teacher Appreciation Week is the first full week of May nationally; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED that the City of Belle Isle encourages all administrative and support staff to show admiration and gratitude to the teachers in Orange County Public Schools and does hereby proclaim May 2-6, 2016 as Teacher Appreciation Week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Belle Isle to be affixed this 3rd day of May, in the year two thousand sixteen.

Attest:

Yolanda Quiceno, City Clerk

Mayor Lydia Pisano