2. Boaz Police Department Letter of Commendation presentation -
Police Chief Abercrombie stated that they would like to recognize Sergeant Jonathan Rohlfs.

Police Captain Harris explained a situation where a lady had come to the Police Department and was worried about her brother that lived on the streets in Nashville. She could not get a hold of him and was worried something had happened. Sergeant Rohlfs spent a considerable amount of time trying to find information about the lady's brother. He found out that the lady's brother had been found deceased. Captain Harris state while that was not the outcome they wanted it still brought closure for the lady about what had happened to her brother. He said that Sergeant Rohlfs is a key asset to the City of Boaz.

Mayor Dyar told a story about Sergeant Rohlfs coming to his house about a complaint dealing with his dog. He said that even though he was the Mayor Sergeant Rohlfs still treated him like he would any other citizen and that is what this City needs in the police department.

Council Member Ellis told about Sergeant Rohlfs stopping and talking to him and his neighbor one day and that his neighbor was very impressed with him taking time out of his day to talk to them.
