

Committee recommendations.

94.10 C (2)

Each residence wishing to keep chickens shall pay a registration/permit fee of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) every two (2) years.

Committee: eliminate fee or reduce fee. (Majority)

94.10 C (3)

The total number of permits to be issued is limited to ten (10). The permits will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Permits are granted to the persons harboring the chickens and do not run with the real estate. Permit holders that move can request the Town transfer the permit to a new address for a fee of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00). If the applicant moves to a rental property, consent documentation from the property owner must be provided with the transfer fee.

Committee: Remove limit for number of permits. (Majority)

94.10 C (4) c

The written approval of each adjoining real estate owner. Adjoining real estate owners are limited to the owners of real estate that are immediately adjacent to the real estate that is keeping chickens provided the real estate parcels are not separated by a street or alley; and

Committee: 1 vote to remove requirement, one suggestion to change to adjoining property owners with primary residence withing 150 feet of chicken coop

94.10 C (5)

After receiving the Town permit, the applicant shall present an Indiana Board of Animal Health premise number to Town Hall within 60 days.

Committee: 1 vote to remove this requirement

94.10 D (2)

Chickens shall be kept for pets or personal, non-commercial use only. Selling of eggs and fertilizer is prohibited.

Committee: 1 vote to allow selling eggs and manure

94.10 E (2)

The chicken enclosure and surrounding area shall be maintained in a clean, dry, odor-free, and sanitary condition at all times. All manure, uneaten feed, and other trash shall be regularly removed and disposed of in a sanitary manner so that the chicken enclosure and surrounding area do not constitute a nuisance, safety hazard, or health problem to the surrounding property.

Committee: One vote to remove language highlighted in yellow, one vote to keep