Around the beginning of 2021, I purchased 0 Tilbury Dr and shortly AFTER went through a divorce. I kept the Lot AS PART AS my marital assets portion. I decided then to sell the Lot to A Friend OF mine who is A Builder, AND ~~once~~ once he went to pull A permit, FOUND OUT there WAS AN ISSUE with wetlands that WAS NOT MADE AWARE to me when I purchased the Lot, AS A matter OF FACT, my REALTOR checked with the TOWN prior to purchasing the LAND to see if there were any ISSUES, AND we were told it WAS A Buildable Lot.

AFTER some research, my Friends FOUND ~~out~~ out the process to Apply For permission to disturb wetlands AND the VARIANCE process with the town WAS going to cost extra money he WASN'T expecting to pay & possibly 8-12 months in time.

I then decided in good conscious to purchase BACK the Lot & deal with the process myself & Build a Single Family Home.

I've since completed All the engineering required For both the SET BACK VARIANCE & EROSION control with RI COASTAL.

I'm Awaiting the Approval From RI COASTAL, but so far the Feedback for Approval Has been positive. I modified the Foot print OF the house to Fit the proposed Building Box but I do NEED A VARIANCE OF THE Front only SET BACK.

REGARDS,
GEOFF VICENTE
