The Coastal Resources Management Council (CRMC) is an independent state regulatory agency composed of ten members in accordance with R.I. General Laws § 46-23-2. Members of the Council are appointed by the Governor for terms of three years. The CRMC's enabling legislation requires that representation include members from coastal communities; state and local government officials, the general public, and the director of the Department of Environmental Management, who serves ex officio. When contested cases are heard, the Council must include a representative from the community involved when no CRMC member is from that town.
