To whom it may concern:

Regarding the space at 317 Hope Street, it is our intent to open and operate a real estate office at this location. We are a Sotheby's International Realty affiliate and therefore are required by our brand agreement to maintain our approved company logo (included on signage renderings). Our logo however is the only requirement we are beholden to relative to uniformity across our locations. As with each of our offices, we take the time to ensure we blend in well with the location, rather than stand out. The history of our brand, and the respect we have for the historical significance of many areas in Rhode Island, ensures that we will maintain the integrity of the district. While we are thought of by some to be a franchise, each of our offices are individually owned and operated by our broker/owners, who both live in Rhode Island, and are managed by staff who live in the area. We take great pride in our spaces and are committed to being an asset to the communities we operate in. The interior of our offices are all designed to embrace the feel of each town. Our proposed Bristol office will not be any different. We intend to make this office a space that is not only inviting for the local foot traffic, but also a destination for those seeking a white glove experience when looking to relocate to the many beautiful homes in the area.

Thank you,

Andrea Crivellaro
