A photograph of a blue house with two red doors and a concrete porch with a metal railing. The house has horizontal siding and a small window above the porch. The porch is made of concrete and has a metal railing with vertical bars. The two red doors are side-by-side, each with a small window and a brass handle. The door on the left has the number 14 and a small plant hanging from the handle. The door on the right has the number 12. A black mailbox is mounted on the wall between the doors. A black lantern-style light fixture is mounted on the wall to the right of the door with number 12. The concrete porch is in the foreground, and the metal railing is in front of the doors.
