NARRATIVE / GIST

On 3/18/26 at approximately 1345 hours, I received a property damage complaint via on-line reporting. I contacted the complainant, Brian Leite [REDACTED] via phone to follow up.

Leite advised on 3/12/26 at approximately 0710 hours he was driving his vehicle, a gray Nissan bearing RI registration 889195, on Antony Ave. While traveling on Antony Ave, Leite stated his vehicle struck a large pothole that was "obscured due to the water level" from the rain the previous evening. Leite stated when the vehicle stuck the pothole his low tire pressure indicator illuminated on his dashboard. Leite stated he immediately drove home and observed both passengers side tires to be damaged. Leite stated he contacted roadside assistance who towed his vehicle to Tire MD in Bristol to repair the tires.

Leite advised he contacted DPW that day who placed a cone there and the pothole the next day. Leite stated and he did not have a chance to take any photos of the pothole or damage to the tires.

Leite provided me a receipt from Tire MD in the amount of $955.75.

Leite advised he was instructed by DPW and Town Hall to file a Police Report. Leite was advised a report would be placed on file.
