Photos of 35 Burton St. taken BEFORE construction began in July of 2026.

These photos were taken in the few years before and leading up to July 2026.

1. Photo of the front of the house showing the driveway and the east neighbor's house.

Photos of 35 Burton St. taken BEFORE construction began in July of 2026.

These photos were taken in the few years before and leading up to July 2026.

2. East side of the house showing the driveway, the fence gate to the backyard, the shed beyond that, the fence on the east property line, and the east neighbor's house on the other side of the fence.

Photos of 35 Burton St. taken BEFORE construction began in July of 2026.

These photos were taken in the few years before and leading up to July 2026.

3. Shed, the shed overhang, and the view into the backyard including the large Norway Spruce on the west side of the yard which takes up a considerable amount of space. This photo was taken just inside the fence gate at the end of the driveway

Photos of 35 Burton St. taken BEFORE construction began in July of 2026.

These photos were taken in the few years before and leading up to July 2026.

4. Backyard which illustrates the position of the shed, the shed overhang, and the house and the fence gate and the driveway beyond the fence. It also shows a sliver of the east neighbor's house on the left side of the photo.

Photos of 35 Burton St. taken BEFORE construction began in July of 2026.

These photos were taken in the few years before and leading up to July 2026.

5. Close-up view of the shed overhang, the house, and the garden, showing the distance between the house and the shed.

