Notes:

* See special use standards in section 28-150.

+ In the W (waterfront) zone, other than for single, two-family, three-family, four-family dwellings or in an urban rehab land development project; retail business, office uses, marine trades industries, restaurants, cafes, and/or delis are required on the first floor within 50 feet of the front lot line.

++ See section 28-356 et seq. for additional language regarding accessory uses in the HPC zone.

+++ See section 28-150(e) et seq. for additional language regarding the keeping of chicken hens.

See sections 28-150(h) and 28-281 for formula business (as defined in section 28-1) in the historic district zone which also require a special use permit.

(1) Two household dwellings may be permitted in the R-15 and R-20 zoning districts provided that at least one unit is deed restricted as an affordable housing unit under the Low to Moderate Income Housing Act.

(2) On state-owned land.

(3) Except as provided per section 28-153, home occupations.

(4) Only if not within 200 feet from a residential zone or residential use.

(5) Not more than one prefabricated relocatable steel building, box trailer or shipping or cargo container shall be permitted as of right for a single period of no longer than 60 days as a temporary use of any property by the property owner. The temporary use must first be approved by a permit from the building official and zoning enforcement officer to ensure compliance with standards of section 28-150(i). During that 60-day period, a property owner may apply to the zoning board for a special use permit to maintain the structure for an extended period of time.

(6) See chapter 10, article V of the Bristol Town Code for additional regulation of outdoor wood boilers.

(7) One dwelling for a caretaker may be constructed if the property has more than 20 acres.
