

Coastal Resources Management Council (CRMC) Representative

Basic Information

Public

The Coastal Resources Management Council (CRMC) is an independent state regulatory agency composed of ten members in accordance with R.I. General Laws § 46-23-2. Members of the Council are appointed by the Governor for terms of three years. The CRMC's enabling legislation requires that representation include members from coastal communities; state and local government officials, the general public, and the director of the Department of Environmental Management, who serves ex officio. When contested cases are heard, the Council must include a representative from the community involved when no CRMC member is from that town.
