HOUSE RESOLUTION

PROCLAIMING APRIL 24, 2022, AS "ARMENIAN GENOCIDE REMEMBRANCE DAY"
TO COMMEMORATE THE ARMENIAN GENOCIDE OF 1915 TO 1923, AND IN HONOR OF ARMENIAN-AMERICANS

Introduced By: Representatives Kazarian, Shekarchi, Blazejewski, Corvese, Solomon, Ruggiero, Ackerman, Fenton-Fung, Filippi, and Fogarty

Date Introduced: April 13, 2022

Referred To: House read and passed

1 WHEREAS, The Armenian Genocide was conceived and carried out by the Ottoman 2 Empire from 1915 to 1923, and resulted in the deportation of nearly 2,000,000 Armenians, of 3 whom 1,500,000 men, women, and children were killed, and the remaining 500,000 survived but 4 were expelled from their homes. This act succeeded in the elimination of the Armenians from 5 their historic ancestral homeland where they had resided for over 2,500 years; and

6 WHEREAS, On May 24, 1915, for the first time ever, the Allied Powers of England, 7 France, and Russia, jointly issued a statement explicitly charging another government of 8 committing "a crime against humanity"; and

9 WHEREAS, This joint statement declared, "the Allied Governments announce publicly 10 to the Sublime Porte that they will hold personally responsible for these crimes all members of 11 the Ottoman Government, as well as those of their agents who are implicated in such massacres"; 12 and

13 WHEREAS, United States Ambassador Henry Morgenthau, Sr. explicitly described the 14 policy of the Ottoman Empire's government to the United States Department of State as "a 15 campaign of race extermination," and on July 16, 1915, was informed by United States Secretary of State Robert Lansing that the "Department approves your procedure . . . to stop Armenian persecution"; and

WHEREAS, The post-World War I Turkish government indicted the top leaders involved in the organization and execution of the Armenian Genocide and in the "massacre and destruction of the Armenians," and in a series of court-martials, officials of the Young Turk regime were charged, tried and convicted, for organizing and executing massacres against the Armenian people; and

WHEREAS, In 1948, the United Nations War Crimes Commission invoked the Armenian Genocide as "precisely . . . one of the types of acts which the modern term 'crimes against humanity' is intended to cover" as a precedent for the Nuremberg tribunals; and

WHEREAS, The United States National Archives and Record Administration holds extensive and thorough documentation on the Armenian Genocide, especially in its holdings under Record Group 59 of the United States Department of State, files 867.00 and 867.40, which are open and widely available to the public and interested institutions; and

WHEREAS, The United States Holocaust Memorial Council, an independent federal agency, unanimously resolved on April 30, 1981, that the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum would include the Armenian Genocide in the museum and has since done so; and

WHEREAS, When one enters the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, there is an exhibit depicting Adolf Hitler, who on ordering his military commanders to attack Poland without provocation in 1939, dismissed objections by stating "[w]ho, after all, speaks today of the annihilation of the Armenians?", thus setting the stage for the Holocaust; and

WHEREAS, On April 24, 2021, United States President Joe Biden stated, "...we remember the lives of all those who have died in the Ottoman-era Armenian genocide and recommit ourselves to preventing such an atrocity from ever again occurring"; and

WHEREAS, In 1918, after the fall of the Russian Empire, the Azerbaijan Democratic Republic and the First Republic of Armenia both declared independence; however, shortly thereafter, they became part of the Soviet Union. The modern Republic of Azerbaijan once again proclaimed its independence in August of 1991, shortly before the dissolution of the USSR.

25 Within its borders, however, the predominantly Armenian enclave known as the Republic of 26 Artsakh officially voted to become part of Armenia; and

27 WHEREAS, Azerbaijan sought to suppress the separatist movement, while Armenia
28 backed it. Turkey has close ties to Azerbaijan and was the first nation to recognize Azerbaijan's 29 independence in 1991. In 1993, Turkey, in addition to engaging in numerous hostilities, shut its 30 border with Armenia in support of Azerbaijan during the war over the Republic of Artsakh; and

31 WHEREAS, In Turkey's continuing aggression and genocide of Armenians that began 32 more than 100 years ago, the armed conflict between Azerbaijan, with military support provided 33 by Turkey, and the Republic of Artsakh has resulted in Armenia being forced to return many of 34 the surrounding territories it had occupied for decades; and

1 WHEREAS, Although current ceasefire and negotiations were agreed upon, Azerbaijan 2 continues to seek unilateral concessions through the use of force; and

3 WHEREAS, In March through early April of 2022, following several days of escalated 4 tensions, Azerbaijan's military open fired on Armenian military posts along the western part of 5 the Armenia-Azerbaijan border, and days later, shelled various villages, mostly located along the 6 eastern border of Artsakh; now, therefore be it

14 unlawful deportations, separating the indigenous population from their homeland; and be it 15 further

17 community of Rhode Island and assures them that this genocide will always be commemorated 18 and never forgotten; and be it further
