Leo's was first opened in 1948 by Pantaleone (Leo) Mancieri and his wife Virginia (Nonni), who immigrated to the United States from Italy. Established mainly as a pizzeria in the State Street section of Bristol, the restaurant quickly gained a local following and became a popular eatery. In the years after World War II, Leo's served as a popular lunch destination for workers and families alike. Leo and Virginia, along with sons Mario and Reno, worked tirelessly to produce great fresh Italian favorites and create a friendly environment for their customers.

The original Leo's remained open until 1976 when the family decided to close after Leo passes away, and in the year 2000 Leo's grandson, Paul Mancieri, relocated to 365 Hope Street in the heart of historic downtown Bristol. Paul and his wife Adriana pride themselves on bringing back the spirit and the recipes of the pizzeria ran by Leo and Nonni. Welcome to Leo's Ristorante! Enjoy our family recipes, preserved for three generations and plated with care and love by Paul, Adriana and their staff.

Prices do not include sales taxes. Prices subject to changes. Substitutions may result in an upcharge.

Quito's Fall Specials

APPETIZERS

MINI SALMON CAKES - 20

Fresh salmon, parsley, bread crumbs, and just a touch of mayo hold these cakes together. Pan-seared and served with a sriracha lemon aioli sauce

SWEET CURRIED MUSSELS - 18

Steamed mussels tossed with sautéed shallots and red bell peppers are added to a broth using grade A pure maple syrup, heavy cream, and aromatic yellow curry. The perfect fusion of briny mussels, sweet maple syrup, and rich flavorful yellow curry, this sauce is genuinely bread-worthy.

ENTRÉES

APPLE CIDER GLAZED SALMON - 32

We start by pan-searing fresh Atlantic salmon in a sweet, but tart apple cider balsamic reduction served on a creamy cloud of mashed sweet potatoes. Accompany this sacchariferous duo is our apple slaw, a blend of juicy granny smith apples, celery, shaved fennel, and red onions tossed in a simple lemon vinaigrette, champagne vinegar, olive oil, and fresh squeezed lemon juice, the perfect match to our sweet cider glazed salmon.

STUFFED FILET OF SOLE - 40

Autumn is here and with the colder weather comes rich creamy decadent dishes like this one. Fresh Atlantic sole, filled with shrimp, lobster, crab meat, and cracker crumbs. Baked in a creamy lobster sauce and topped with a touch more bread crumbs for a little texture and crunch. Served with garlic steamed broccoli and parsley smashed potatoes

SCALLOPS WITH POMEGRANATE BEURRE BLANC - 38

Atlantic Sea Scallops are seared to a caramel perfection then perched atop a velvety mix of sweet potatoes, cream and brown butter, topped with a crimson glaze of pomegranate beurre blanc and, served with sautéed kale. This dish is a feast for the senses, vibrant red and orange hues, flavorful fresh fall ingredients, all brought together with a tangy pomegranate sauce.

PEPITA PESTO - COATED PASTA - 32

Jumbo Shrimp are grilled with garlic, white wine, and zingy lemon juice then tossed in our pepita seed pesto; fresh basil, roasted pepita's, nutty parmesan cheese, fragrant garlic and extra virgin olive oil are all blended together into this seasonal pesto that is every bit as flavorful as it sounds. We use thick ribbon pappardelle pasta since so you're sure to get a mouthful of pesto in every bite..
