Citation

Presented to
Ernest Cafolla
Sergeant – United States Army (Ret.)

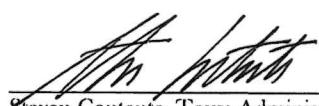

A valued citizen of the Town of Bristol, in proud recognition of his selection of Veteran of the Year by the Bristol County Elks Lodge No. 1860.

"This nation will remain the land of the free only so long as it is the home of the brave." – Elmer Davis

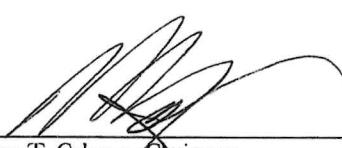

Sergeant Ernest Cafolla bravely served in the United States Army during World War II, demonstrating unwavering courage, strength, and dedication in defense of our freedom. His service stands as a proud reflection of the patriotism and character that define our greatest generation. Ernest's commitment to his country and community continues to inspire all who know him, reminding us of the sacrifices made by those who answered the call of duty in one of history's most defining moments.

In making this presentation, the Honorable Town Administrator and Honorable Town Council of the Town of Bristol, State of Rhode Island, in accordance with the authority vested in them by the citizens of Bristol, and on behalf of all Bristolians, offer sincerest congratulations to Ernest Cafolla and his family for your extraordinary service and dedication to the Town of Bristol and to our brave and honorable Veterans.

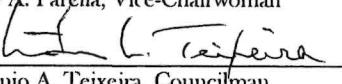

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and affixed the Seal of the Town of Bristol this 9th day of November, 2025.
