

Propositions 12 & 13: Clark County Public Safety Bond and Levy

November 3 General Election Ballot

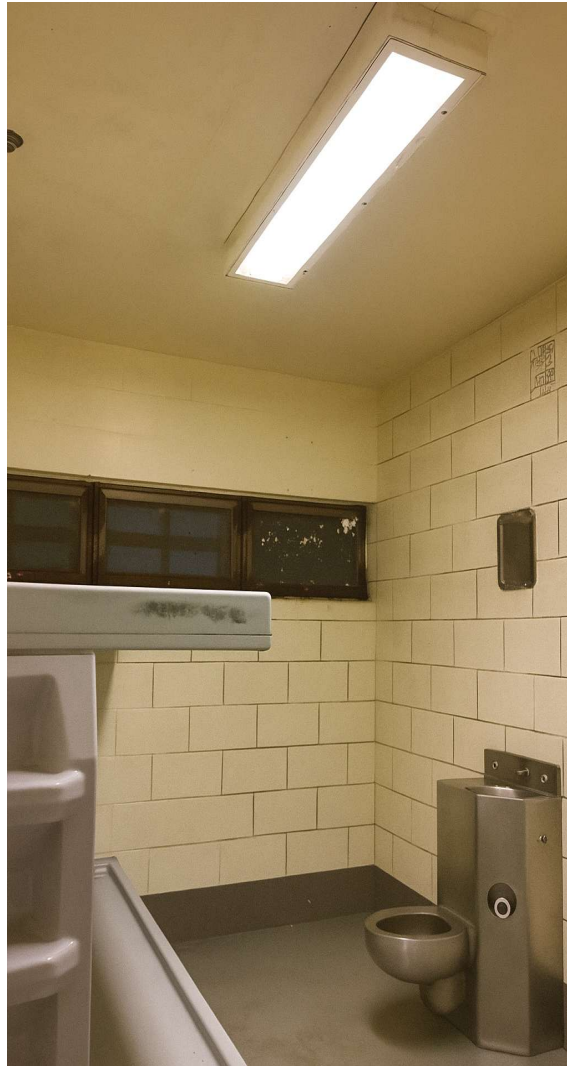

Why These Propositions?

Jail built in 1984

Need safer,
expanded facility

Reduce jail bed
rental costs

Bond Proposition 12

Remodel & expand jail

More jail beds

New Sheriff HQ

Bond Proposition 12 Cost

$366M total

~$86/year for median home

Jail Capacity

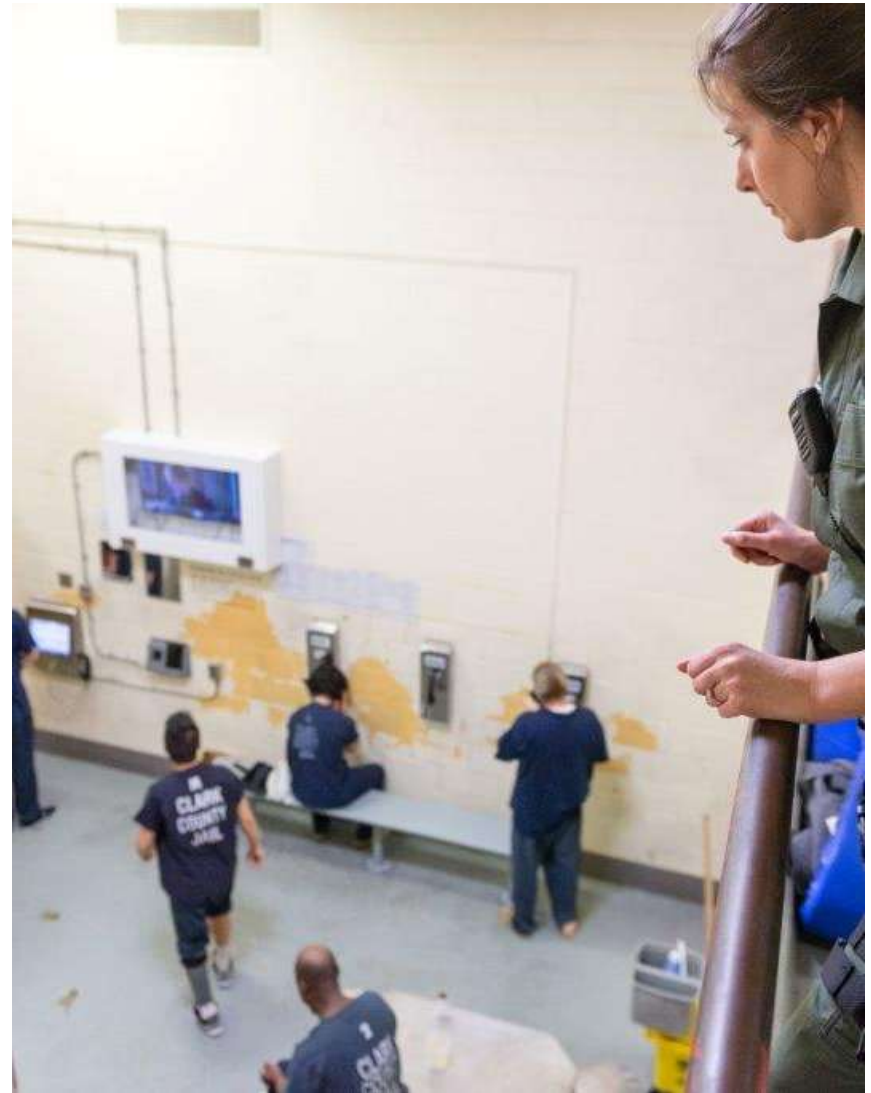

519 beds today

739 beds after expansion

Increased needs:

- Substance use disorders
- Mental health disorders
- Medical conditions

Federal and state requirements to provide care

Jail Booking Status

Level Red
88%

Level Yellow
10%

Level Green
2%

Levy Lid Lift Proposition 13

Funds jail staffing

Supports Sheriff & courts

Levy Lid Lift Proposition 13 Cost

$51.4M total

~$242/year for median home

If Only One Passes

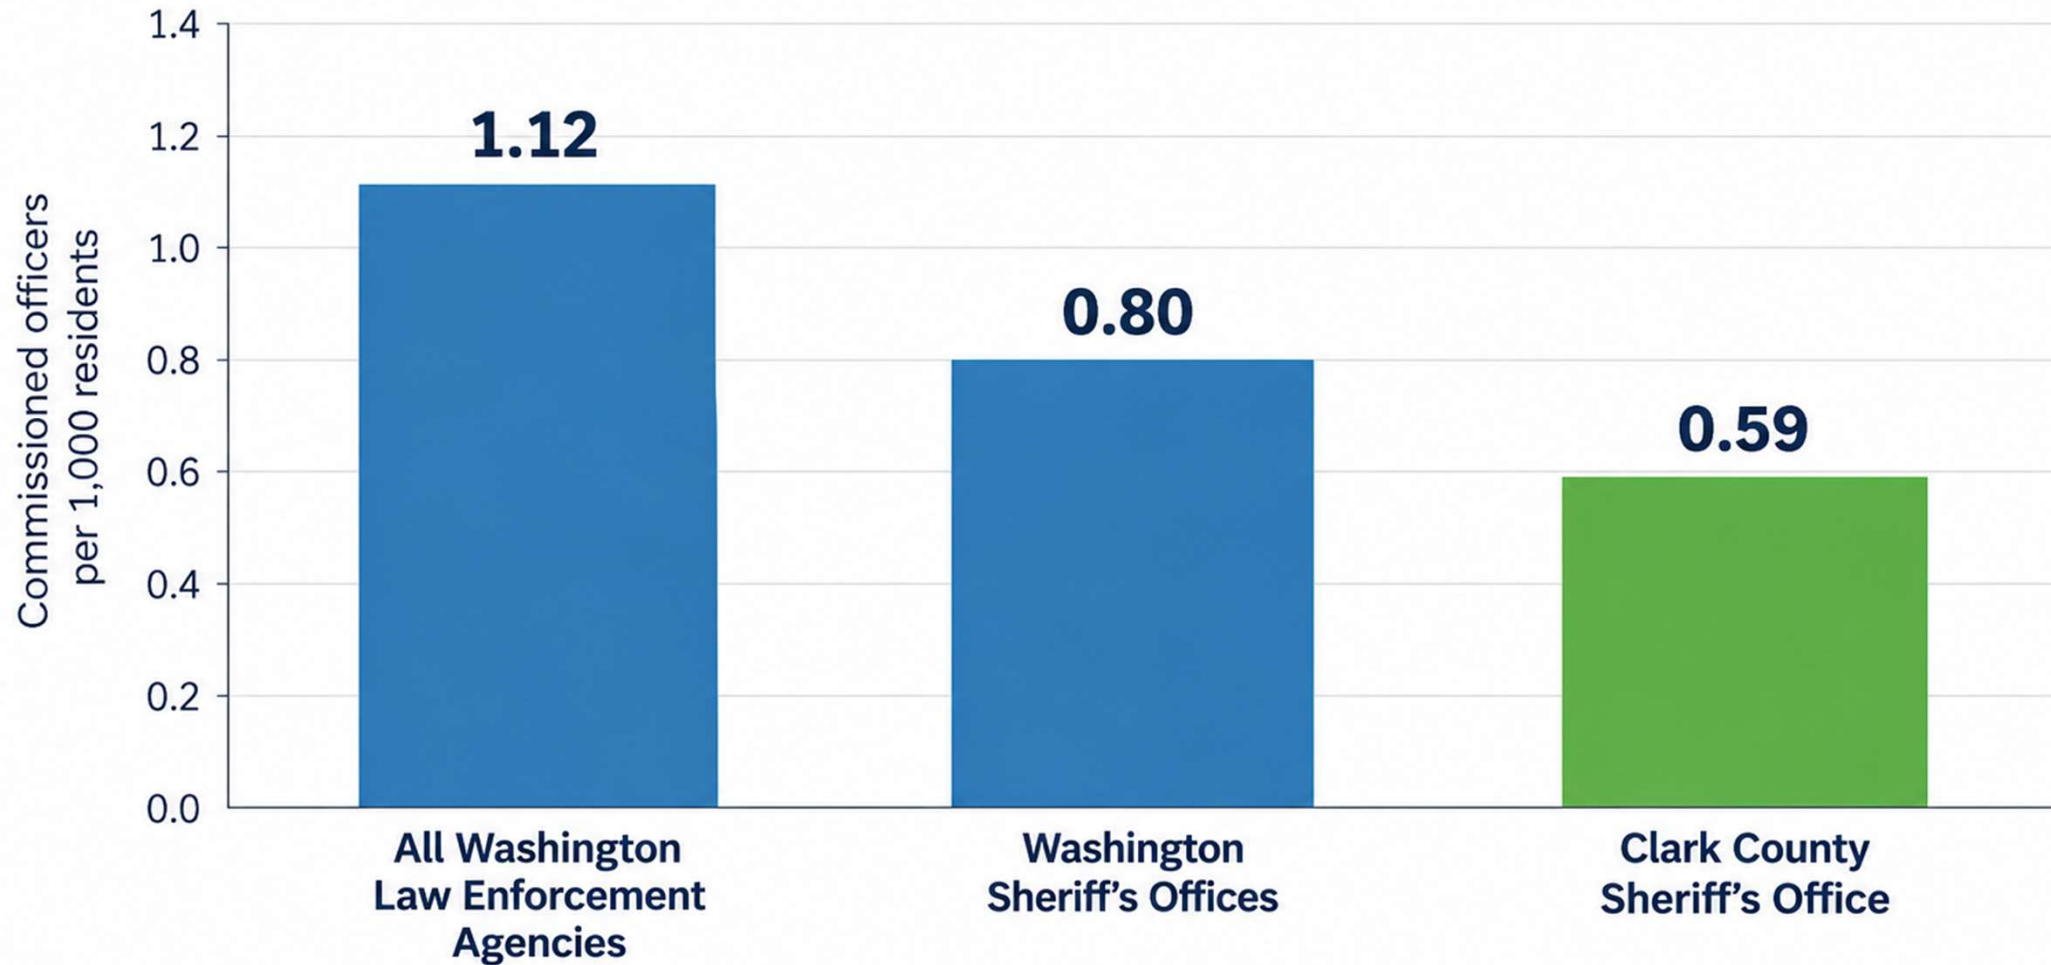

Bond only:
Supports buildings
Wait for staffing

Levy only:
Supports operations
Wait for facilities

Law Enforcement Staffing in Washington

Commissioned officers per 1,000 residents (2025 WASPC Staffing Report)

Source: Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs (WASPC) 2025 Staffing Report.

Bond Proposition 12: What's Needed to Pass?

40% minimum voter turnout

Requires 60%

Where Property Tax Dollars Go in Clark County

Local Schools

State Schools

Cities &
Towns

Fire &
EMS

Clark County

County
Roads

Library

Port

Other

County Rates Per $1,000 in Assessed Value

General Fund	0.7229
Conservation Futures	0.0275
Mental Health	0.0084
Developmental Disabilities	0.0084
Veterans Assistance Fund	0.0076
Total	0.7749

Final Summary

Bond = buildings

Levy = staffing

Questions

- ADA Office: 564-397-2322
- ADA@clark.wa.gov
- www.clark.wa.gov/prop12aand13

