Methodology to be used to capture attendance *

(check all that apply)

- Direct Count: Actual count of visitors using methods such as paid admissions or registrations, clicker counts at entry points, vehicle counts or number of chairs filled. A direct count may also include information collected directly from businesses, such as hotels, restaurants or tour guides, likely to be affected by an event
- Indirect Count: Estimate based on information related to the number of visitors such as raffle tickets sold, redeemed discount certificates, brochures handed out, police requirements for crowd control or visual estimates
- Representative Survey: Information collected directly from individual visitors/participants. A representative survey is a highly structured data collection tool, based on a defined random sample of participants, and the results can be reliably projected to the entire population attending an event and includes margin of error and confidence level
- Informal Survey: Information collected directly from individual visitors or participants in a non-random manner that is not representative of all visitors or participants. Informal survey results cannot be projected to the entire visitor population and provide a limited indicator of attendance because not all participants had an equal chance of being included in the survey
- Structured Estimate: Estimate produced by computing known information related to the event or location. For example, one jurisdiction estimated attendance by dividing the square footage of the event area by the international building code allowance for persons (3 square feet)
- Other: Please describe below

- Other description:

The reach of each of the guides and magazines per their media kits plus analytics from web ads

Advertising Opportunity 2020 COLUMBIA RIVER GORGE Two States, Three Volcanoes and One Big River™ Oregon and Washington's Playground

The Columbia River Gorge visitors magazine is one of the most popular guides to the Columbia River Gorge and the surrounding area. It is the where to go, what to do and how to find magazine. For those of you who have this publication in your facility, you have seen them fly out the door. Advertise your business and reach out to visitors who are planning their trip or who are already here and want to know what to do. This is a very well received publication.

The magazine is distributed at the Portland Airport Visitor Center at two locations (car rental and baggage claim information areas) along with the following Welcome Centers: Klamath Falls, Seaside, Oregon City, Brookings, Boardman and Ontario. Travel Portland is also a huge supporter and distributor of the magazine. Certified Folder Display is contracted by Wind River Publishing, LLC to distribute the visitor magazine on their specialized display racks at various hotels, restaurants and various retail businesses in the Gorge. For a detailed list of the hundreds of distribution sites, see page 2 of this media kit.

NEW THIS YEAR – VISITOR WEBSITE!

This new website will promote all there is to do and see! It will be very comprehensive and similar to the magazine with added resources, itineraries and beautiful photos. There seems to be a high demand for a one stop website showcasing the Columbia River Gorge, Mt. St. Helens, Mt. Hood and Mt. Adams areas. The website will offer ad space on the page that relates to your business and is available for $250 for a whole year. The ad will consist of logo or photo and a 50 word description and hyperlink to your website. This is a first time introductory special price for all that support and advertise in the magazine. Release date is May 2020.

Please consider placing an ad in this very popular magazine and also purchasing a space on the website. This media kit and a digital copy of last years magazine is available at www.windriverpublishing.net. We plan to print 75,000 magazines and will be completed in May 2020.

Testimonials

The maps, articles and organizational layouts were perfect tools for our staff in working with visiting tourists and regular customers, plus with how many different locations, businesses and counties distributed through, we know for a fact that our advertising dollars were well spent in a very direct and functional manner.

Pepi Gerald / Second Wind Sports

The Columbia River Gorge visitor magazine is a must have for visitors heading through the Gorge. Full of useful information for both the Oregon and Washington sides of the Columbia River, we give this guide out to everyone who's headed in that direction. The guide has information on just about anything a person might be wondering about, from hiking to windsurfing, from shopping to dining, this guide has it all!

*Karen Hutchinson-Talaski, Executive Director
Umatilla Chamber of Commerce & Visitor Center*

Every day we have campers visiting the Gorge who don't realize how much there is to do here. Handing out this magazine has given them a wider scope of activities and sights to see which has encouraged our campers to extend their stays at our RV park & campground. This is a well-designed magazine that we're glad to have!

Testimonials

Hello! My name is Cindy Cartwright and this past weekend while visiting Multnomah Falls, I picked up a copy of the Columbia River Gorge visitor magazine. It is an exceptional magazine and an excellent read as I sipped my morning cup of tea.

Thank you for making such a delightful and informative magazine. I wish I had picked up two copies so that I could send one to my family in Texas. I think this magazine is a perfect enticement for getting them to visit our beautiful area of the world. This magazine, more than any other, has a perfect blend of activities and events that will help individuals with various interests find something to do in such a beautiful place like the Columbia River Gorge. I could go on and on about how much I like this magazine!

Sincerely, Cynthia Amezquita Cartwright

The Columbia River Gorge Visitor Magazine is a complete package of resources, maps and information about all sorts of experiences in our area. This is my favorite item to use when guiding our guests to their adventures. I explain the layout of the magazine and make sure they understand that it is rich with information about what they want to seek and so much more! Every year, Judy makes this magazine better than before. It is the only visitor guide needed to be prepared for a trip in the Columbia River Gorge and Mt. Hood region.

Tammara Tippel, Executive Director / Mt. Adams Chamber of Commerce

As a Forest Service representative stationed in the Skamania Lodge, I find the Columbia River Gorge magazine to be extremely helpful and knowledgeable in assisting visitors become acquainted with the Gorge. Not only does it do an amazing job organizing how the Gorge is laid out, it uses that same intuitive nature to explain and highlight each region in the Gorge's best features. As a person that works in recreation, I especially appreciate how well the magazine organizes the abundance of activities there are in the area, and have many times offered it for people that come and 'just got here and don't know what to do.'

Aberdeen Alvi / Forest Service Information Center, Skamania Lodge

The Columbia River Gorge Magazine is a valuable promotional tool for the community. Here at Full Sail we have many tourists coming through town and we direct them to this magazine. We go through more of these magazines than the others that we provide for our guests.

Testimonials

Columbia River Gorge magazine is our number one requested magazine from our guests at Hood River Hotel. The literature in the magazine is a perfect guide for our guests with current information on the area, events calendar, and hiking. The added feature Oregon and Washington maps truly assist visitors in finding the perfect place to go in the gorge. The Hood River Hotel highly recommends the Columbia River Gorge visitor magazine.

Jessica / Reservation Desk, Hood River Hotel

I would like to tell you how much we love the Columbia River Gorge magazine here at the PDX State Welcome Center at the Portland International Airport. The fact that it covers BOTH sides of the river is one of the best reasons for its popularity! It is the most thorough Guide we have on the Gorge. It covers each community so well! Hiking (which is our most asked question for the Gorge), family ideas, adventure ideas, maps and an excellent event guide in the back are what travelers are asking for and it is so easy to navigate through! From January to Date we have distributed 3164 issues with July the highest at 994 issues. 2015 was an excellent year with a total of 7240 issues distributed. We really love this magazine and always look forward to getting it.
