Scope of Work
City of Camas
343 Zone Reservoir Siting Analysis
February 2022

Background

The City of Camas (City) is a uniquely complicated water system due to the wide-ranging service elevations and variety of sources of supply. The City's 2019 Water System Plan (WSP) identified the need for a new 1.4 to 1.5 million gallon (MG) 343 Zone Reservoir to replace the existing Butler Reservoir as it is nearing the end of its useful life. The Butler Reservoir is located in the 343 Zone and also serves other lower pressure zones through pressure reducing valve (PRV) stations. The area served by the reservoir is the 343 Zone service area.

The WSP also identified widespread areas of low fire flow and pressure deficiencies in the 343 Zone service area. Improvements to resolve these deficiencies should be considered and coordinated with the design of the new reservoir to optimize the operation of the 343 Zone service area, maximize funding investments in water system infrastructure, and improve level of service to City customers.

The City has requested RH2 Engineering, Inc., (RH2) to provide engineering services to support the site selection and design of reservoir and distribution system improvements for the 343 Zone service area. Engineering services provided under this Scope of Work are generally expected to include the following:

Reservoir Siting and Conceptual Design. Analyses will be performed to identify potential reservoir sites for the replacement of the Butler Reservoir. Analyses also will be performed to identify other water system improvements necessary to integrate the new reservoir into the distribution system and to address the widespread pressure and fire flow deficiencies in the 343 Zone service area. Conceptual site and reservoir plans, and conceptual renderings for the selected preferred reservoir site will be developed to support the site acquisition and the City's stakeholder and public engagement efforts.

The following describes the overall understanding and assumptions used by RH2 in preparing this Scope of Work.

- The base planning assumptions from previous water system planning efforts will be advanced to reconfirm the service area, demand projections, and level of service (LOS) goals for the new reservoir.
- This study will refine previous analyses and provide recommendations that will define the criteria for final reservoir sizing, siting, and property acquisition.
- RH2 will rely upon the accuracy and completeness of any information, data, and materials generated or produced by the City or others in relation to this Scope of Work.

- Project documents will be provided in electronic format to the extent possible. Deliverables will be provided in PDF format unless otherwise noted.
- It is assumed that the hydraulic model provided by the City is up to date for the existing water system, has been calibrated to industry standards, and runs without errors.

Task 1 – Project Management

Objective: Perform project management services, including monthly invoicing, and attend planning and progress meetings.

Approach:

- 1.1 Perform project administration including monthly invoicing and budget control, bi-weekly planning and progress meetings, and preparation of meeting agendas and minutes.
- 1.2 Develop and maintain a list of data and materials required from the City.
- 1.3 Maintain frequent client communications, including phone calls and emails, in addition to the progress meetings.

RH2 Deliverables:

- Monthly invoices.
- Meeting agendas and minutes.
- List of data and materials required from the City.
- Phone calls and email communication as needed.

Task 2 – Reservoir Sizing and Preliminary Site Screening

Objective: Determine the required storage volume for the new reservoir. Perform a preliminary site screening of the Butler Reservoir, Camas Cemetery, and up to two (2) additional potential reservoir sites.

Approach:

- 2.1 Attend a project kickoff and informational meeting with the City. Discuss City project goals, reservoir sizing requirements, site selection ranking concepts, LOS goals, hydraulic modeling requirements, and planning duration. Discuss potential site constraints such as site zoning requirements, sensitive area designations, and property line setback requirements. Discuss other project stakeholders and their roles and level of involvement related to reservoir siting.
- 2.2 Prepare a table identifying the average and peak demand projections for the planning duration.
- 2.3 Summarize the existing and future water supply available to the 343 Zone service area for the purposes of the storage calculations. Include improvements planned at the Washougal Wellfield and identify estimated schedule of completion within the planning duration.
- 2.4 Perform storage calculations for the 343 Zone service area to confirm the required usable storage volume to meet operational, equalizing, standby, and fire flow storage needs for the existing and future conditions. Identify opportunities for shared storage with adjacent pressure zones to optimize system-wide storage needs.

- 2.5 Review available topography, aerial imagery, and existing site plans for the City-owned Butler Reservoir and Camas Cemetery sites. Prepare site maps using available GIS data. Perform an initial fatal flaw analysis and determine if there are any major barriers that would limit construction of the proposed reservoir at either site. Estimate the approximate maximum reservoir dimensions that each site may support.
- 2.6 Perform a limited screening of the 343 Zone service area for other viable properties for reservoir siting as alternatives to the City-owned Butler Reservoir and Camas Cemetery sites. Coordinate with the City to identify known willing sellers within the viable property area and select up to two (2) other properties for further evaluation. Estimate the approximate maximum reservoir dimensions that the potential viable sites may support.
- 2.7 Prepare a technical memorandum summarizing the site screening and initial fatal flaw analysis with figure(s) showing the reservoir sites selected for further evaluation.

Provided by the City:

- Available GIS files, geotechnical studies, and aerials within the study area.
- Available survey and/or site plans for the Butler Reservoir and Camas Cemetery sites.
- Hydraulic model files.
- Attendance at project kickoff and informational meeting.

RH2 Deliverables:

- Attendance at project kickoff and informational meeting.
- Demand, supply, and storage calculations for the 343 Zone service area.
- Site screening technical memorandum and figure(s).

Task 3 – Hydraulic Analyses

Objective: Utilize the hydraulic model of the City's water system to identify the improvements necessary to support a reservoir at each of the potential sites identified in Task 2 and to address pressure and fire flow deficiencies in the 343 Zone. Prepare a phasing plan for the improvements.

Approach:

- 3.1 Perform baseline steady-state hydraulic analyses to determine the existing water pressure and available fire flow in the 343 Zone service area using the hydraulic model of the water system.
- 3.2 Evaluate the existing 343 Zone service area and identify areas of low and high pressures and fire flow deficiencies.
- 3.3 Perform hydraulic analyses to identify conceptual water system improvements to integrate the proposed reservoir into the system at each of the potential sites and to coordinate the new reservoir with an improvement plan to resolve pressure and fire flow deficiencies in the 343 Zone service area. The analyses will consider the following:

- Optimization of the level of service throughout the 343 Zone service area, including pressure and fire flow.
- Potential expansion of adjacent pressure zones or creation of new pressure zone(s).
- Future planned facilities that will impact the operation of the 343 Zone service area such as improvements at the Washougal Wellfield and the Forest Home Booster Pump Station replacement.
- Adding new water system facilities, including water main, booster pump stations, PRVs, individual PRVs, and check valves.
- Reconfiguring existing PRVs and restoring service to currently offline PRVs.
- Improvements to water system redundancy and resiliency.
- Potentially siting 343 Zone storage at two (2) different sites.
- Minimization of costs to the City, including project costs, additional operations and maintenance for new facilities, and life-cycle costs.

3.4 Identify the recommended reservoir dimensions to accommodate the hydraulic system and storage needs at each potential reservoir site based on the results of the hydraulic analyses.

3.5 Prepare figures showing the potential reservoir sites, conceptual system improvements, and the pressure and fire flows before and after the system improvements are complete.

3.6 Identify a phasing plan for the improvements that considers the improvements required to bring the reservoir online in an initial phase separate from the PRV, pressure zone, and fire flow improvements.

RH2 Deliverables:

- Figures showing potential reservoir sites, conceptual system improvements, and the pressure and fire flows before and after the system improvements are complete.
- Phasing plan for the recommended improvements.

Task 4 – Reservoir Siting Analysis

Objective: Develop a weighted scoring matrix and planning-level cost estimates to evaluate and prioritize the viable reservoir sites, and document the analysis in a technical memorandum. Meet with the City to select a preferred reservoir site.

Approach:

4.1 Meet with the City to review the potential reservoir sites and the conceptual water system improvements. Identify desired reservoir design features, construction material/type, access needs, and ancillary buildings.

- 4.2 Prepare planning-level opinions of probable construction cost (OPCC) and operational cost estimates for each reservoir site, including transmission/distribution main and other project-related system improvements.
- 4.3 Develop a weighted scoring matrix for ranking the reservoir sites to inform the selection of the preferred site.
- 4.4 Prepare a technical memorandum that summarizes the results of the hydraulic analyses, including recommendations for reservoir sizing and pressure and fire flow improvements, and the evaluation of viable reservoir sites and weighted criteria matrix. Transmit the draft technical memorandum to the City for review.
- 4.5 Meet with the City to review the technical memorandum and scoring matrix and select one (1) preferred site for a conceptual site plan.

Provided by the City:

- Attendance at two (2) project meetings.

RH2 Deliverables:

- Attendance at two (2) project meetings.
- OPCC and operational cost estimates for each viable reservoir site and project-related system improvements.
- Weighted scoring matrix for ranking the reservoir sites.
- Draft technical memorandum summarizing the hydraulic analyses and siting analysis.

Task 5 – Finalize Conceptual Design

Objective: Conduct a desktop survey of the selected site and develop conceptual site and reservoir plans, as well as an artistic rendering for the proposed reservoir. Revise and finalize the technical memorandum based on the selection of the preferred reservoir site and conceptual site and reservoir plans.

Approach:

- 5.1 Conduct a desktop survey of the site selected in Task 4 in sufficient detail to perform conceptual site design and include existing utilities, site topography, property lines, building setbacks, and easements. Subcontract with a licensed professional land surveyor to obtain utility locates using the One-Call system, perform aerial drone mapping, and provide up to four (4) hours of field work with a two (2) man survey crew to obtain supplemental mapping to address potential data gaps, private utility locates, and site topography.
- 5.2 Develop conceptual site and reservoir plans showing the proposed reservoir and foundation footprints, pipelines, vaults, support buildings, stormwater facilities, perimeter fencing, and access road/paving.
- 5.3 Prepare a conceptual rendering of the proposed reservoir and site.

5.4 Update and finalize the technical memorandum based on the City's review comments, site selection, conceptual site and reservoir plans, and conceptual rendering.

Assumptions:

- It is assumed that a full topographic survey will not be performed at this time and that the conceptual site plans will be prepared utilizing readily available mapping information, including aerial/drone imagery and GIS/LIDAR data.

Provided by the City:

- Any readily available information on the highest rated property.
- Review and comment on the draft technical memorandum.

RH2 Deliverables:

- Conceptual site and reservoir plans.
- Conceptual rendering of proposed reservoir.
- Final technical memorandum summarizing the hydraulic analysis and site selection.
