G. AUDIENCE PARTICIPATION

Margaret Smith, 223 North, said she and her business are being bullied by Code Enforcement.

Brian Smith, 223 North, said the Mayor is hateful to his business because he is affiliated with a man who just announced his candidacy for Mayor. He also accused the Mayor of being racist.

Quita Robinson, 225 Agee, stated that she was unhappy with the way her boys were treated at the park and asked for a public apology to them.

Amorette Hawkins, 2814 Evergreen, asked for a public apology to the boys.

Antonio Robinson, 225 Agee, told the Mayor that she should have spoken to the boys herself and not asked the police to do it. He said all he wanted was an apology for the boys.

Larry Mitchell, 649 Magnolia Road, asked why the Council didn't discuss during the meeting the questions that are brought forward during audience participation.

H. MAYOR'S REPORT

Mayor Young introduced Public Works Director, Earl Porchia, for an update. Mr. Porchia informed the Council that the commercial sanitation truck, ordered last year, has arrived. The bathroom remodel and repair has been completed at the landfill and they hope to start on the control room in July or August. The landfill passed the quarterly inspection. The Parks Department is currently hiring lifeguards for the pool which will open May 23. Hours for the Holiday weekend will be 4-7 on Friday, 10-7 on Saturday, and 1-7 on Sunday. The new chlorinator was given by a generous donor, and saved the city over $50,000. Mr. Porchia informed the Council that the A&P Commission will be upgrading the lights in the parks to LED, and they started spraying for mosquitoes on May 5th.

K. OTHER BUSINESS

Mayor Young pointed out the article from ORVA Magazine that she left at everyone's spot. Dredging should start on the Ouachita River in a couple of months. They are trying to get the river designated as a Marine Highway, which would greatly benefit Camden and the Port. She also announced the passing of long time Port Authority board member Edwin Horton. The Mayor said that Frank Bateman with the Arkansas Black Mayors Association contacted her to let her know that the government has reinstated the funding for the Watershed Project and they are about to begin Phase II, design. Michael Baker Engineering has been selected for the design phase. Mayor Young announced that a Civic Arkansas Credential Workshop will be held Friday June 6 from 9:00 until Noon at OPED.

Alderman Flannigan asked how many phases there were for the Watershed Project. There are three: planning, design, and implementation.

Alderman Askew stated that the process for naming the police building needs to be sped along. He also said that some signs need to be posted at the playground, especially one reminding people to keep their dogs out of the play area.

Alderman Steed reminded everyone to keep the police department and Ms. Gwen's family in their prayers. Ms. Gwen had worked at the police department for 31 years.

Alderman Winters invited the Council and City employees to join the Memorial Day Parade. He said that the County Justices had been invited also. The parade will start at 10:00 on Saturday May 24.

Alderman Cooper announced that Ward 3 will have a meet and greet in July to welcome Alderman Flannigan.

L. ADJOURNMENT
