Public Health / Healthcare

Please describe your qualifications and interest in serving on this Board/Commission/Committee: *

I have been a resident of the Capitola community for nearly 10 years and am interested in participating more actively in our local government. While my work is based in public health, my interests include local governance as it relates to planning and development and how city polices and codes can shape, maintain and positively impact our community. My qualifications include my professional skills (applicable across fields) and my research into planning codes and city policies as they have related to my personal experience as a resident of Capitola. Thank you for your consideration of my request and interest in serving on this advisory body.
