Hello Neighbors

As we know my kryptonite is showing up. Luckily the folks who would like me neutralized are quite dumb, so I can repeatedly tell them exactly how to stop me and they will continue to fail at it. Makes the game kinda boring but meh.

Just a reminder item 8B or whatever it is when Yvette resigns is legally required to have public comment.

Also want to confirm this council will have a chance to vote on the traffic calming at bay hill in January as council instructed in November.

We really need a roundabout or light there and not finishing the study guarantees we will never get one.

Warmly JM
