

7.3 Definitions

Building footprint means where the enclosed area of a building comes out of the ground. It is the literal footprint of the exterior walls of the enclosed area of the building as they touch the earth. This does not include porches, terraces, overhangs, awnings, driveways, or parking lots.