Crash kills Walnut Hill woman

A single-vehicle crash that occurred at approximately 5:30 p.m. Thursday, May 15, has claimed the life of a Walnut Hill, Fla., woman. Mary Ria Michele Burt, 62, was critically injured when the 2017 Volkswagen Tiguan she was driving left the road-way, struck a culvert, and overturned. Burt was not using a seat belt at the time of the crash and was ejected. Burt was transported to Sacred Heart Hospital in Pensacola, Fla., for treatment. On Friday, May 30, Burt succumbed to injuries and was pronounced deceased.

The crash occurred on

Monroe County 45 near Matheny Road, approximately eight miles southeast of Frisco, in Monroe County. Nothing further is available as Troopers with the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency’s (ALEA) Highway Patrol Division continue to investigate.

Cobb addresses Reid State graduates

Retired Alabama Supreme Court Justice Sue Bell Cobb delivered the graduation address to students at Reid State Technical College in Evergreen. More than 260 career-ready credentials were awarded to 204 graduates during the ceremony May 9.
