Mayor/Council Comments

Mayor Fahringer thanked CCVFD, Public Works and PD for the excellent work they have been doing. He also gave condolences to Charles Willis for the recent loss of his wife. The mayor went on to say there just aren't words. Everyone has so much love for her and for him.

Vice Mayor James Bohannon thanked everyone for coming out. He went on to thank the PD, FD & public works. Vice Mayor commended everyone that works for our town.

Council Member Marshall Whitaker said it was good to know we live in a community where neighbors help each other, and everyone knows one another. He commended the PD and public works for doing a good job. Council Member Whitaker also thanked Town Manager Forbes and all the town office crew for all they do and put up with.

Council Member Pauline Keeton thanked Charles Willis for all he has done and let him know that he has everyone's support.

Town Manager's Oral Report

Town Manager Dusty Forbes reported there has been three meetings on the Lee Building and they will continue looking at proposals. He announced that spring cleanup is scheduled for April 10-14, 2023, and the pickup of approved items are free. Forbes reported there were two new sewer lines installed on W Sycamore and N Marshall Street. He made council aware of the denial received for the grant that would reimburse the town for sewer work that has been completed. Forbes continues to work on the police grant that would provide a traffic camera system. He spoke on the community Easter egg hunt coming next month, the MMG St Patrick's Day Dinner and silent auction fundraiser on March 18, 2023, as well as the book signing by Roger Deakins fundraiser for MECCA on April 15, 2023. The town manager reported that water cutoffs were installed at the Wells Fargo building and the HVAC has also been completed there. JE Burton Construction will start renovations on the Wells Fargo building on March 20, 2023, with the anticipated completion date of August 2023. He also announced that the new Voyent alert system goes live April 1, 2023.

Adjournment

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned at 7:27p.m.

Alden Fahringer, Mayor

Stacey Pafford, Clerk of Council
