

What do you want to achieve?

When it comes to making plans after graduation, you know yourself better than anyone. You're going to figure out what is best for you, you just need to know what your options are. SF Achieve is a brand new program from Santa Fe College designed to give you access to more opportunities. It costs you nothing to participate, there's no minimum GPA to join, and it has some perks . . .

MENTORSHIPS, SCHOLARSHIPS AND CAREER OPTIONS

Mentors & Support

Get personalized college coaching and support on your high school campus, and throughout college if you attend SF.

Grades 9-12 Welcome

Freshman, sophomores, juniors and seniors are encouraged to sign up. It's never too early to start planning for college.

Workshops for Families

Information sessions help parents and guardians understand the college process. They get support, too!

Free Textbooks

All participants get a book stipend at the SF Bookstore for up to $400 each semester, for up to 60 credit hours.

Full-Tuition Scholarships

Eligible students can get tuition covered for up to 60 credit hours, with no minimum GPA or SAT/ACT score.

Degrees & Apprenticeships

SF has something for everyone, whether you're headed for a university, or want to do something more hands-on.
