Children's Trust of Alachua County

March 31, 2022

Our Purpose: What we want to get out of collecting data?

Data will help us to better strategically focus, collaborate, and achieve improvements in child well-being.

How are we going to work together?

- Florida Sunshine Law
- Our Collaborative Process
- About the Trust

How are we going to work together?

- Florida Sunshine Law – presented by Bob Swain, Deputy County Attorney

How are we going to work together?

- Collaborate = we are looking to partner with you in formulating solutions and will incorporate the groups advice into the final recommendation.
  - ✓ The final decision on whether to accept our recommended policy is up to the Children's Trust Board.
- Consensus-based decision making, whereby members of a group actively participate in finding a decision together that all members can feel comfortable with.

Collaboration and Working Together

- ❖ Think of a group you participated in, that you found to be especially effective, and satisfying to be a part of. What were factors that you think contributed to its success?

Appreciative Inquiry

Discovery: Valuing the Best of “What Is”

Dream: Envisioning “What Might Be”

Design: Discussing “What Should Be”

Destiny: Innovating “What Will Be”

The Thin Book of Appreciative Inquiry, Sue Hammond
