

ATTACHMENT D

This conceptual rendering looking north at the corner of Pearl and Coburg Industrial Way shows how future development of Highway Commercial could help create compatible commercial development across from existing residential while providing a slip street for slower traffic and on-street parking.

Current state