Planning Commission: The Commissioners are an advisory group to the City Council on issues and policies related to planning, land use regulations, and community development. Planning Commissioners work to develop plans and implement policies that affect how the community changes with growth and development. Some of the duties include:

- Management of the Coburg Comprehensive Plan, functional plans, and refinement plans for the City that have been adopted by Council.
- Update and keep current zoning, subdivision, and sign code ordinances with required findings in the Coburg Comprehensive plan.
- Hold hearings and approve or deny applications for partitions and subdivisions. Using the basis of their consistency adopted in the subdivision ordinance.
- Provide recommendations to the City Council on streets, parking areas, sidewalks, and bikeways.

Meetings: Monthly (3rd Wednesday)

Membership: Seven (7)

Vacancies: Two (2) to be filled

Term: Both positions are two-year terms that expire in October 2027.

Membership Requirements: The planning commission consists of 7 members appointed by the city council. Five members must be City residents. Two members may live within the City or within the area of influence as defined by the Comprehensive Plan, or own real property within the City, or be an owner or partner of a business in the city limits.

Application Deadline: Recruitment will be active until positions are filled.
