BACKGROUND

The Comprehensive Plan lays out the city’s long-range vision for the future in the areas of land use, transportation, development, housing, water systems, climate, natural systems and parks and trails, and serves as a guide for the city when making decisions.

Every ten years the Met Council tasks cities in the metro area to update their Comprehensive Plan.

SUMMARY OF CURRENT STATUS

Met Council officially released the System Statement for Columbia Heights which marks the kickoff for the Comprehensive Planning process. We will discuss how the Comprehensive Plan was handled in the past, and the proposed timeline for upcoming Comprehensive Plan.
