Columbia Heights is embarking on updating our Comprehensive Plan. Imagine 2050 will serve as the guiding document for City staff and elected officials as they make decisions about the City's future.

The City Council is seeking to select a diverse group of community members to bring their unique experiences to the process. The Review Committee will work directly with the city's selected consultants to review and advise on all the elements of the Comprehensive Plan, including Land Use, Parks and Trails, Housing, Transportation, Water Resources, and Climate.

The Review Committee will meet throughout the two-year planning process to advise on policy and review draft chapters of the plan before the City Council's final approval.

Why are you interested in serving on the Comprehensive Plan Review Committee?

To bring ideas with an Asian perspective approach as I have had my share of experiences exploring in bigger cities in different states and how the Asian community operates and what they offer and can bring to the community bc there actually not to much Asian culture nor community business with Asian background and if your build it they will come and Columbia heights has a big diverse community as it is already
