She stated she would like to adjust the travel budget to allow Councilor Tucker to attend the 2022 ACCG's Annual Conference.

Clerk of Council Sandra T. Davis responded to a question asked by Councilor Crabb, stating her office handles the requests for travel received by the members of Council on a "first come first serve" basis and there is no amount allotted for each councilor. She also stated once the travel for Councilor Huff is expended, the travel budget for Council will be depleted for FY 2022.

Mayor B. H. "Skip" Henderson stated in the past, there was a specific amount allotted for each councilor and if you wanted to attend a conference and had already spent your allotment, you had to request the funds from another councilor.

City Manager Isaiah Hugley explained pursuant to Ordinance 13-39, each department is required to come before Council to request additional funds if they are expected to exceed their budget. He urged the members of Council to follow the same procedure as required by the other departments. He stated that he would take care of the registration fee, allowing the Council time to figure out how they wish to move forward.

Councilor Glenn Davis expressed his concerns regarding this request, stating he is sensitive to the subject matter; since, he was present in the past when the same issues arose. He agreed with the City Manager that the process should be followed just as required by the other departments.

Councilor Toyia Tucker explained she needed to attend this conference to maintain her certification as an elected official, which she was awarded in November 2021 after completing the required sixty-six hours of training. She added that she is the only certified elected official on Council.
