All records shall be open to inspection upon the request of the affected county, municipality, consolidated government, court, the Department of Audits and Accounts, an auditor appointed by the affected county, municipality, or consolidated government, Department of Corrections, Department of Community Supervision, State Board of Pardons and Paroles, or the board.

2.) Fiscal Audit: Contractor shall employ an independent auditor to annually audit its records and books pertaining to the services rendered at the courts request. Upon a written request by the court, a copy of this audit shall be provided to the Court and County Governing Authority within 2 months or sixty (60) days of the close of the year audited.

E. Conflict of Interest per O.C.G.A 42-8-109

1.) No Private Corporation, private enterprise, or private agency contracting to provide probation services under neither the provisions of this article nor any employees of such entities shall engage in any other employment, business, or activity which interferes or conflicts with the duties and responsibilities under contracts authorized in this article.

2.) No Private Corporation, private enterprise, or private agency contracting to provide probation services under the provisions of neither this article nor its employees shall have personal or business dealings, including the lending of money, with probationers under their supervision.

3.) No private corporation, private enterprise, or private agency contracting to provide probation services under the provisions of this article nor any employees of such entities, shall own, operate, have any financial interest in, be an instructor at, or be employed by any private entity which provides drug or alcohol education services or offers a DUI Alcohol or Drug Use Risk Reduction Program certified by the Department of Driver Services.

4.) No private corporation, private enterprise, or private agency contracting to provide probation services under the provisions of this article, nor any employees of such entities shall specify, directly or indirectly, a particular DUI Alcohol or a Drug Use Risk Reduction Program which a probationer may or shall attend. This paragraph shall not prohibit furnishing any probationer, upon request, with the names of certified DUI Alcohol or Drug Use Risk Reduction Programs. Any person violating this paragraph shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

F. Scope of Services to Probationers by Contractor. Contractor shall provide the following services:

1.) Court Attendance and Probationer Case History. During all court sessions, Contractor shall have a probation officer attend and interview each offender to complete a case and personal history and to provide orientation and instruction regarding compliance with the Court's ordered conditions of probation. At orientation, the probation officer shall provide a list of all service fees to the probationer.

2.) Supervision. Contractor shall monitor and supervise probationers to ensure compliance with the Court's order of probation. Contractor shall make a supervision assessment of the offender and determine the probationer's reporting schedule.

3.) Restitution, Fine and Fee Collection. Contractor shall collect restitution, fines, court costs and fees, program fees, and probation fees as ordered by the Court. Contractor shall provide an itemized ledger prepared in accordance with accepted accounting practices for each month for each case under supervision.

(a) Indigent Offenders: Offenders determined by the court to be indigent In accordance with O. C. G.A 42-8-102 shall be supervised at no cost to the probationer or the Court or governing body.

(b) Pay-Only Cases: Pay-Only cases or the term 'pay-only probation' means a defendant has been placed under probation supervision solely because such defendant is unable to pay the court-imposed fines and statutory surcharges when such defendant's sentence is imposed. Such term shall not include circumstances when restitution has been imposed or other probation services are deemed appropriate by the court. When pay-only probation is imposed, the probation supervision fees shall be capped so as not to exceed three months of ordinary probation supervision regardless of the number of concurrent or consecutive cases; provided, however, that collection of any probation supervision fee shall terminate as soon as all court imposed fines and statutory surcharges are paid in full; and provided, further, that when all such fines and statutory surcharges are paid in full, the private probation officer, as the case may be, shall submit an order to the court terminating the sentence within 30 days of fulfillment of such conditions. If pay-only probation is subsequently converted to a sentence that requires community service, on petition by a probation officer or private probation officer and with the probationer having an opportunity for a hearing, the court may reinstate probation supervision fees as necessary to monitor the probationer's compliance with community service obligations.

(c) Consecutive sentences: When a defendant is serving consecutive misdemeanor sentences, whether as a result of one case from one jurisdiction or multiple cases from multiple jurisdictions, upon motion by the defendant, the court may discharge such defendant from further supervision or otherwise terminate probation when it is satisfied that its action would be in the best interest of justice and the welfare of society. Such motion shall not be ripe until 12 months after the sentence was entered and every four months thereafter. The defendant shall serve the applicable entity or governing authority that is providing his or her probation services with a copy of such motion. Additionally, when a defendant is serving consecutive misdemeanor sentences the probation officer shall review such case after 12 consecutive months of probation supervision wherein the defendant has paid in full all court-imposed fines, statutory surcharges, and restitution and has otherwise completed all testing, evaluations, and rehabilitative treatment programs ordered by the court to determine if such officer recommends early termination of probation. Each such case shall be reviewed every four months thereafter for the same determination until the termination, expiration, or other disposition of the case. If such officer recommends early termination, he or she shall immediately submit an order to the court to effectuate such purpose.

4.) Community Service. The contractor shall coordinate, monitor, and ensure compliance with community service by each probationer as ordered by the Court. The Court may convert fines, statutory surcharges, and probation supervision fees to community service on the same basis as it allows a defendant to pay a fine through community service as set forth in subsection (d) of Code Section 17-10-1. Contractor will maintain records of community service participation.

5.) Employment Assistance. The contractor shall prepare referrals and lend reasonable assistance to probationers either to the extent ordered by the Court or to the extent available for probationers desiring employment assistance or counseling.

6.) Drug/Alcohol Screening. The contractor shall coordinate with local authorities and facilities, evaluation and assessment of probationers for drug/alcohol rehabilitation, mental health or psychological counseling, or educational programs mandated by the Court and shall require probationer's compliance.

Contractor shall conduct drug and alcohol screens as determined necessary by the Court. The probationer shall be responsible for the costs of all drug or alcohol testing.

7.) Electronic Monitoring. Contractor when so ordered shall provide and operate a system of electronic home detention monitoring:

8.) Reports of Violations Probation and Revocation Procedures. The contractor shall recommend revocation of probation whenever the probationer has failed to substantially comply with the terms and conditions of probation. The Court shall provide Contractor with direction of what constitutes a substantial failure to comply with probation terms and conditions. Contractor shall prepare probation violation warrants and orders for submission to the Court. Contractor shall have probation officers available to testify at probation revocation hearings, sentencing hearings and such other hearings as deemed reasonable and necessary by the Court. The Court shall provide Contractor direction as to what curative measures should be taken in the case of minor violations.
